 Ome holy Ghost, eternall God,
C proceeding from above,
Both from the Father and the Son,
 the God of peace and love.

Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godlinesse
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all woe and distresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse:
The fountain and the lively spring
of joy celestiall:
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs church doth stand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in everyplace.

O holy Ghost, into our wits
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknessse,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither flesh, the world, nor devil,
against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdain.
And grant, O Lord, that thou being
our leader and our guid,
We may esch w the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plentie of thy grace
good Lord grant we thee pray,
That thou mayst be our comforter
at the last dreidfull day.
Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord, dissolve the bands;
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord; through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee,
The spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God eternall.
And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his spirit to send
To all that do professe his name,
unto the worlds last end.

The humble suit of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my carefull heart:
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me;

But onely thou whose aid I crave,
whose mercie still is prest
To ease all those that come to thee
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restlesse eyes,
my tears and grievous grone;
Attend unto my suit, O Lord,
mark well my plaint and mone.

For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compast me about,
That I am now remedlesse,
if mercie help not out.
For mortall man cannot release,
or mitigate this paine:
But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye:
Yet do thy saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sin doth hinder me awhile,
when thou shalt see it good
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and bloods.

And as thine angels and thy saints
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name.
But whilst I live here in this vale
where sinners do frequent, Assit me ever with thy grace
my sins still to lament:

Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent
To dwell with them in wickednesse, whereto nature is bent
Only thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise,
And in thy church and house of saints
sing psalms to thee alwayes.

Venite, exultemus. Psal. xciv.

O Come and let us now rejoice,
And sing unto the Lord,
And to our only Saviour
Also with one accord.
O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits
Always distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In psalms now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.
And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where,
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord, and King,
And we his people are,
His flock and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.
This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart,
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
Of trouble in the wildernes,
A great and grievous crime.
Whereas your fathers tempted me
And tried me every way:
They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These fourty yeers I have been grieved
With this generation:
And evermore I said, they err'd
In their imagination:
Wherewith their hearts were forecumbered
Long time and many dayes:
Wherefore I said, Assuredly
They have not known my wayes.

To whom I in my anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to thee, Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father, and the Son,
and to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was
for ever heretofore,
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The song of S. Ambrose, called Te Deum.

We praise thee, God, we knowledg thee
the only Lord to be;
And as eternall Father, all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all angels cri, the heavens
and all the powers therin:

To thee cherub and seraphin
to cri they do not kin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabaoth Lord the God;
Through heaven & earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.
Th' apostles glorious company
yeeld praises unto thee:
The prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee alwayes.
Father of endlesse majesty
they do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ thine honourable, true,
and only Son to be.

The holy Ghost the comforter:
of glory thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.
When sinfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclos'd in virgins wombe
thou diddest not abhor.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might,
Thou heavens kingdome didst set ope
to each beleeving weight.
In glory of the Father thou dost sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.

Lord help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood,
And in eternall glory set them with thy saints so good.
O Lord do thou thy people save,
bless thine inheritance:
Lord govern them, and Lord, do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end Adore thy holy name: O Lord, vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day: have mercie, Lord,
have mercie on us all,
And on us, as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I have repos'd all
my confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therefore Lord let me never be.

The song of the three children.

1 O ye works of God the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, praise him
and magnifie him for ever.

2 O ye the angels of the Lord,
blesse ye the Lord, praise him
and magnifie him for ever.

3 O ye the starry heavens high,
blesse ye the Lord, praise him

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.
20 O all ye green things on the earth,
 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

 blesse ye the Lord, &c.

33 O Azarias blesse the Lord,
 blesse thou the Lord, &c.
34 And Misael, eke blesse the Lord,
 blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

THE only Lord of Israel
 Be praised evermore:
For through his visitation
 And mercy kept in store,
 His people now he hath redeem'd,
That long have been in thrall:
And spread abroad his saving health
 Upon his servants all,

In David's house his servant true,
According to his mind,
And also his anointed king;
As we in scripture find.

Magnificat.

As by his holy prophets all
Oft-times he did declare,
The which were since the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate,
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.
The mercie which he promised
Our fathers to fulfill,
And think upon his covenant made
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworn
To Abraham our father dear,
For us that were forlorn:
 That he would give himself for us
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness:
And also for to lead our lives
In stedfast holiness.
And thou, O child, which now art born,
And of the Lord elect,
Shalt be the prophet of the high'st,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face
For to prepare his wayes,
And also for to teach his will
And pleasure all thy dayes.

To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neer:
And that remission of their sinnes
Is through his mercy meer.

Whereby the day-spring from on high
Is come us for to visit,
And those for to illuminate
Which do in darknesse sit.

To lighten those that shadowed be
With death, and eke opprest,
And also for to guid our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The song of blessed Marie, called

Magnificat.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord,
 My spirit eke evermore
Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,
 Which is my saviour.

And why? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto
So base estate of his handmaid,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations
And generations all,
From thistime forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call:

Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might;
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame,
Throughout all generations
To such as fear his name.

Nunc dimittis.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they bear in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernall seat,
And did exalt the weak in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.
The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good,
And through his power he madethe rich
Oft-timesto want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deal,
Hath holpen up assistantly
His servant Israel.
According to his promise made
To Abraham before,
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The song of Simeon , called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire Hath wished long to see My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Son,before I die :
The joy and health of all mankind,
Desired long before,
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store:

Thou sufferest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy word ,
Which lighteneth my heart.
Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light ,
Have now beheld thy saving health ,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set ,
Of thine abundant grace ,
In open sight and visible
Before all peoples face ,
The Gentiles to illuminate ,
And Satan overquell ,
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The Symbole or Creed of Athanasius , called Quicunque vult.

What man soever he be that salvation will attain ,
The Catholick beliefe he must before all things retain .
Which faith unless he wholly keep ,
and undefiledly ,
Without all doubt eternally
he shall be sure to die.

The Catholick beliefe is this ,
that God we worship one In trinity , and trinity in unity alone :
So as we neither do confound
the persons of the three ,
Nor yet the substance whole of one in funder parted be .

One person of the father is ,
another of the Son ,
Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone .

Quicunque vult.

Of Father,Son, and holy Ghost,
but one the Godhead is ,
Like glory , coeternal like the Majesty likewise.

Such as the Father is , such is the son in each decree ,
And such also we do believe the holy Ghost to be .
Uncreate is the Father , and uncreate is the Son ,
The holy Ghost uncreate , so uncreate is each one .

Incomprehensible Father is , incomprehensible Son ,
And incomprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none .
The father is eternall , and the Son eternall so ,
And in like sort eternall is
the holy Ghost also .

And yet though we believe that each of these eternall be :
Yet there but one eternall is ,
and not eternals three .
As ne incomprehensible we ,
ne yet uncreate three ,
But one incomprehensible , one uncreate hold to be .

Almighty so the Father is ,
the son almighty so ,
And in like sort almighty is
the holy Ghost also .
And albeit that every one of these almighty be ;
Yet there but one almighty is ,
and not almighty three .

The Father God is , God the Son ,
God holy Ghost also :
Yet are there not three Gods in all ,
but one God , and no mo .
So likewise Lord the Father is ,
and Lord also the Son ,
And Lord the holy Ghost ; yet are there not three Lords , but one .

For as we are compell'd to grant
by Christian verity , Each of the persons by himself
both God and Lord to be :
So catholick religion
forbiddeth us alway ,
That either Gods be three , or that there Lords be three , to say .

Of none the Fater is , ne made ,
ne create , nor begot :
The Son is of the Father , not create , ne made , but got :
The holy Ghost is of them both
the Father and the Son ;
Ne made , ne create , nor begot ,
but doth proceed alone .

So we one Father hold , not three ,
one Son also , not three :
One holy Ghost alone , and not three holy Ghosts to be .
None in this Trinity before nor after other is :
Ne greater any then the rest ,
ne lesser be likewise .

Quicunque vult.

But every one among themselves
of all the persons three,
Together coeternallall,
and all corquall be.
Sounity in trinity,
as said it is before,
And trinity in unity
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that
salvation will attain,
This faith touching the trinity of force he must retain.
And needfull to eternall life
it is, that every wight
Of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Son of God is God and man also.
God of his Fathers substance got
before the world began,
And of his mothers substance born
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soul
and humane flesh substift.
Touching his Godhead, equal with his Father God is he:
Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of man;
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of
the substance into one;
But onely by the unity
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soul
and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man
is but one Christ likewise:

Who suffered sor to save us all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose again from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God
th' Almighty Father there:
From thence to judge the quick and dead
again he shall appear.

At whose return all men shall rise
with bodies new restor'd,
And of their own works they shall give account unto the Lord.
And they into eternall life
shall go that have done well:
Who have done ill, shall go into eternall fire to dwell.

This is the catholick belief:
who doth not faithfully

The lamentation of a sinner.

Believe the same, without all doubt
he saved cannot be.
To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

The lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turn not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate,
Lamenting sore his sinfull life
Before thy mercie-gate.
Which gate thou openest wide to those
That dolament their sin.
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account,
How I have lived here:
Forthen I know right well, O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.
I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell:
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past,
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee
Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou know'st what things were then,
As allthings else that have been since
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou know'st them all, O Lord,
Where they were done, and when.
Wherfore with tears I come to thee
To beg and to intreat,
Even at the childe that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercie-gate,
Where mercie doth abound,
Requiring mercie for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.
O Lord, I need not to repeat
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st, O Lord, before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercie, good Lord, Mercie I ask,
This is the totall sum:
For mercie Lord, is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercie come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater noster.

O Ur Father which in heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy name:
Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done
in earth, even as the same In heaven is. Give us, O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free:
For kingdome, power, and glory thine
both now and ever be.

The ten commandments.

Audi Israel. Exod. 20.

Hark Israel, and what I say
give heed to understand,
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thralldome live a slave.
None other gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee;
Nor any figure like by thee
shalt counterfeited be,
Of anything in heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth:
to them thou shalt not bowe,

Nor shalt them serve: the Lord thy God,
a jealous God am I,
That punish parents faults unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercie do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use:
For him that takes his name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred sabbath day:
Six dayes thou labour shalt, and do
thy needfull works alway:

The seventh day is set by the Lord
thy God to rest upon;
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou, nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place:

For in six dayes God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make,
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blessed the day that he
for resting did ordain,
And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remain.

Ye old honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murther. Thou shalt not commit adulterie.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.

Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong:
Ye covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong:
Nor his man-servant, nor his maid,
nor ox, nor asse of his,
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a sinner.

W^Here righteousnesse doth say,
Lord, for my sinfull part,
In wrath thou shouldest me pay Vengeance for my desert:
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confess
How that continually
I thy laws I do transgresse,
Thy laws I do transgresse.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight
Full oft and every day?

The scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath dependeth;
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise;
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Whereto then shall I trust
My sinfull soul to save.

But truly to that post,
Whereto I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most?
Lord, let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all,
The price of this thy blood,
Wherin mercy I call.

The scripture doth declare
No drop of blood in thee,
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart so drie,
That I with sin repleat,
May live, and sin may die:

That being mortified
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified
By grace of thine in thee;
So that I never fall
Into such mortall sin,
That my foes infernall
Rejoice my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernall foes,
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercie grows.
And I shall sing the songs Confirmed with the just,
That unto thee belongs,
Which art mine onely trust.

The Psalms of D A V I D in meeter.

Beatus vir. Psal. j. T. S.

1 He man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in corners chair.
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side,
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide.
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

Quare fremuerunt. Psal. ij. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumult raise,
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain?
2 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.
4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them upon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,
6 I have anointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore, Lord, preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot, Thou art my dear and onely Son,
to day I thee begot.
8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request:
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace,
as men under foot trod:
And as the potters sheards, shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd,
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoice
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kisse and eke embrace
his blessed Son, I say, Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid-way.

If once his wrath never so small
shall kindle in his breast:
O then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iij. T. S.

O Lord how are my soes increast,
which vex me more and more!

2 They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defence,
when I am hard beslead:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou holdst up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept and rose again:
For why? I know assuredly
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If ten thousand had hemm'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
Forthou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:

7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above: Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iiiij. T. S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call:
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.

Have mercy, Lord, therefore on me,
and grant me my request:
For unto thee uncellantly
to cry I will not rest.

2 O mortall men how long will ye my glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies?

3 Know ye that good and goodly men
the Lord doth take and choose:
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

4 Sin not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart:
And in your chamber quietly
see you yourselves convert.
5 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say:
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

6 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace:
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
7 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,
Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.

8 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
For thou only wilt me, O Lord,
alone in safety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

1 Ncline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider:
2 And hear my voice my king, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Hear me betime Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.
4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not please'd with wickednesse,
and ill with thee dwells none.
5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furiousfools, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquitie
thou hast always abhorred.

6 The lyars and the flatterers,
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceiptfull man.
7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk
before my face disclose.
9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and fain.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad alwayes:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vij. T. S.

1 Ordin thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deservesthine ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.
2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear,
And heal me, Lord, for why? thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But Lord how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery?
4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take:
O save me, not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why? no man among the dead
rememb'reth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?
6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
that I wax wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart,
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
8 But now away from me alayc
that work iniquity:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart;
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus mens. Psal. vij. T. S.

1 O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me
2 Lest like a lion he me tear
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:
4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causelie:

5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust

- Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Startup, O Lord, now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
 Perform the kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare, for love of them,
thy self as Lord and king.
8 And as thou art of all men judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second part.

- 9 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guid:
 By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and desir'd.
10 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
 That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

11 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
 So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.
12 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he should smite,
 He whet his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

13 And doth prepare his mortall darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
 For them that do me persecute,
while she doth mischief warp.
14 But lo, though he in travail be
of his devilish forecast:
 And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

15 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
 But he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.
16 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred,
 And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall upon his head.

17 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously,
 And with my song will praise the name
of him that is most high.

Domine Deus noster. Psal. viiiij. T. S.

- O God our Lord, how wondersfull
are thy works every where,
 Whose fame surmounts in dignity
above the heavens clear!
2 Even by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
 For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand;
 The sun, the moon, and all the stars,
in order as they stand:

4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,
that thou doest him remember?
 Or what is mans posterity,
that thou doest it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little less
then angels in degree:
 And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignity.
6 Thou hast preferr'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder:
 And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else,
that in the fields do feed:
8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord.
 How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world!

Confitebor tibi Dom. Psal. ix. T. S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:
 And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwayes.
2 I will be glad and much rejoice
in thee, O God most hie:
 And make my songs extoll thy name
abovethe starrie skie.

3 For that my foes are driven back
and turned unto flight:
 They fall down flat and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my gr efs and all my grudge:
 Thou dost with justice hear my cause,
most like a righteous judge.

5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked so confound,
 That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroy'd:
 Thou hast their same with them desac'd,
through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou, that he which is above
forevermore shall reign,
 And in the seat of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guid
the world and every wight:
 And so will yeeld with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poor
what time they be opprest:
 He is in all aduersitie
their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy name,
therefore shall trust in thee:
 For thou forsakes not their suit
in their necessitie.

The second part.

11 Sing psalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwels in Sion hill:
 Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.

- 12 For he is mindefull of the blood
of those that be opprest:
Forgetting not th'afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.
- 13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor wretch,
whose enemies still remain,
Which from the gates of death art wont
to raise me up again.
- 14 In Sion that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice,
And that in thy salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoice.
- 15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd,
And in the net that they did set
their own feet fast are snar'd.
- 16 God shews his judgements, which were
for every man to mark,
When as ye see the wicked man
lietrap't in his own wark. (good)
- 17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever,
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
- 18 But surely the Lord will not forget
the poor mans grief and pain:
The patient people never look
for help of God in vain.
- 19 O Lord arise, lest men prevail
that be of worldly might:
And let the heathen folk receive their judgement in thy sight.
- 20 Lord strike such terror, fear, and dread,
into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly
they be but mortall men.
- Ut quid Domine. Psal. x. T. S.*
- W^Hat is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine,
And keepest clost thy countenance
from us this troublous time?
- 2 The poor do perish by the proud
and wicked mens desire:
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.
- 3 For in the lust of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despight.
- 4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he setteth all apart:
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
- 5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect,
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
- 6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change:
And why? for all adversity
to him is very strange.
- 7 His mouth is full of cursednesse,
of fraud, deceit, and guil:
Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travail all the while.

8 He lieth hid in wayes and holes
to slay the innocent:
Against the poor that passe him by his cruel eyes are bent.

- 9 And like a lion privily
lies lurking in his den,
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.
- 10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say:
So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power, his prey.

The second part.

- 11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.
- 12 Arise, O Lord, O God, in whom
the poormans hope doth rest:
Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poor that be opprest.

- 13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhor it,
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, Tush, thou car'st not for it?
- 14 But thou seest all their wickednesse,
and welldoest understand That friendlesse and poor fatherlesse are left into thy hand.

- 15 Of wicked and malicious men
then break the power for ever,
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.
- 16 The Lord shall reign for evermore
asking and God alone,
And he will chase the heathen folk
out of the land each one.

- 17 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poor mens their prayers and request: plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirm, until thine ears to hear be prest:
- 18 To judge the poor and fatherlesse,
and help them to their right;
That they may be no more opprest
by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Psal. xj. T. S.

- I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soul until,
Flie hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill?
- 2 Behold, the wicked bend their bows,
and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmlesse breast.

- 3 Of worldly hope all slayes were shrunk,
and clearly brought to nought:
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?
- 4 But he that in his temple is
most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat
of roiall majestic.

The poore and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde,
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind.

5 And with a cheerfull countenance
the righteous man will use:
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief muse.

6 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thick as any rain,
Fire and brimstone, and whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.
7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace,
And to the just and upright men
Shows forth his pleasant face.

Saluum me fac. Psal. xij. T. S.

H_{el}p, Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay:
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain:
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie, and feign.
3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tonguesthat be so stout
To speak proud words & make great brags,
the Lord soon cuts them out.
4 For they say still, We will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak;
what Lord shall us controll?
5 But for the great complaint and crie
of poor and men opprest, Arise will I now saith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.
6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth istride,
And hath no lesse then seven times
in fire been purifie.

7 Now sith thy promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then:
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kinde of men.
8 For now the wicked world is full of mischieff manifold,
When vanitie with worldly men
so highly is extold.

Vsque quo Domine. Psal. xij. T. S.

H_{ow} long wilt thou forget me, Lord,
shall I ne'er be remembred?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?
2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now my Lord my God,
and hear me sore opprest,
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death possest:
4 Lest that mine enemie say to me,
Behold I do prevail:
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.
5 But from thy mercie and goodnessse
my hope shall never start:

In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.
6 I will give thankes unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing:
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xij. T. S.

T_{here} is no God, as sonlich men
affirm in their mad mood:
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.
2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankinde,
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to finde.
3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none
That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.
4 Is all their judgement so far lost,
that all work mischief ill,
Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?

5 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:
For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.
6 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.
7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise madeto Israel
from out of Sion hill?
Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T. S.

O Lord within thy tabernacle
who shall inhabit still,
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill?
2 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight:
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.
3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill
in body, goods, or name,
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empair the same.
4 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men:
But those that love and fear the Lord
he maketh much of them.

His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully,
Although he make his covenant so that he doth lose thereby.
5 That putteth not to usury
his money and his coin, Nor for to hurt the innocent
doth bribe, or else purloin.

6 Whose

Who doth all things as you see that here is to be done,
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Lord keep me; for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed
Thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.
2 I give my goods unto the saints
that in the world do dwell,
And namely to the faithfull flock
in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
which run as they were mad,
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.
4 As for their bloodie sacrifice
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.
6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell:
Mine heritage assign'd to me
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right:
For by his means my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.
8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoice together:
My flesh and hodie rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my souling grave,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life;
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

O Lord give ear to my just cause,
auend when I complain:
And heare the prayer that I put forth
with lips that do not seigne.
3 And let the judgement of my cause proceed alwayes from thee:
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well try'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue
that was not in my minde.

4 As for the works of wicked men
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy name,
I have restrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me, Lord, and preserve:
That from the way wherein I walk
my steps may never swerve.
6 For I do call to thee, O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid:
Then hear my prayer, and weigh right well
the words that I have said.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee, Declare thy strength on them that spurn
against thy majestie.
8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye:
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me
and daily me annoy,
And from my foes that go about
my soul for to destroy:
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat,
That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should passe,
with craft me to confound:
And musing mischief in their mindes,
to cast me to the ground.
12 Much like a lion greedily
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a lions whelp
within some secret place.

13 Up Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.
14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rife,
That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.
Thou of thy store their bellies fill'ſt
with pleasure to their minde:
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.

15 Put I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Psal. xvij. T. S.

O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:
2 Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessitie.
My God, my rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

- 3 When I sing laud unto the Lord
most worthy to be served,
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickednesse
did put me in great fear.
5 The sly and subtle snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his power that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake, Yea the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.
8 And from his nostrils came a smoke
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth come kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.
9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens hie;
And underneath his feet he cast
the darknesse of the skie.
10 On cherubs and on cherubims
full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.
The second part.
11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.
12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear,
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.
13 The fiery darts and thunder-bolts
disperse them here and there:
14 And with his often lightenings
he puts them in great fear.
15 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding chear,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.
16 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below,
And pluck me out of waters great,
that would me overflow.
17 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall:
Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.
18 They did prevent me to oppresse
in time of my greargries:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
19 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free,
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
20 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,

- And to the cleannessse of my hands
he gave me my reward:
21 For that I walked in his wayes,
and in his paths have trod,
And have not wavered wickedly
against my Lord and God.
The third part.
22 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandements
I cast not out from me.
23 But pure and clean, and uncorupte
appear'd before his face,
And did refrain from wickednesse
and sin in any case.
24 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleannessse of my hands,
appearing in his sight.
25 For, Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and vertuous men
right vertuously wilt do.
26 And to the loving and clea
thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt use the wicked men
as wicked men deserve 27 For thou doest save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie,
And doest bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.
28 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will make also
my darknesse to be light.
29 For by thy help an host of men discomfit, Lord, I shall:
By thee I scale and overleap
the strength of any wall.
30 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
his word is purely tride:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
31 For who is God except the Lord?
for otherthere is none:
Or else who is omnipotent,
saving our God alone?
The fourth part.
32 The God that girdeth me with strength,
is he that I do mean,
That all the wayes wherein I walk
did evermore keep clean.
33 That made my feet like to the harts
inswiftnesse of my pace,
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.
34 He did in order put my hands
to batte and to fight:
To break in sunder bars of brass
he gave mine arms the might.
35 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.
36 And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk,
So that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.

- 37 And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoyd :
And from the field do not return
till they be all destroyd.
- 38 So I supprese and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more :
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them also sore.
- 39 For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to war in such a wise,
That they be all scattered abroad
that up against me rise.
- 40 Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortall enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou doest divide
in sunder with thy stroke.
- 41 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
nor holp them with relief :
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their griefs.
- The fifth part.
- 42 And still like dust before the wind
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay
that sticketh in the street.
- 43 Thou keepst me from seditious folk,
that still in strife are led :
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
- 44 A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve :
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine own will swerve.
- 45 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
- 46 But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving health,
praised be he alwayes.
- 47 For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be :
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.
- 48 And from my foe delivered me,
and set me higher then those
That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.
- 49 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy name
among the Gentiles all.
- 50 That gavest great prosperitie
unto the king, I say.
To David thin anointed king,
and to his seed for aye.

Caelenarrant. Psal. xix. T. S.

The heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glorie of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.
2 The wondrous works of God appear
by every dayes succeſſe:
The nights likewise which their race run,
the ſelfe ſame thing expreſſe.

- 3 There is no language, tongue or ſpeech,
where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conſer'd.
- 4 In them the Lord made for the ſun
a place of great renown,
Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd,
doth from his chamber come.
- 5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haſte to take in hand
ſome noble enterpriſe.
- 6 And all the ſkie from end to end
he compaſſeth about :
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.
- 7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant ſure,
Converting ſouls, and making wiſe
the ſimple and obſcure !
- 8 Just are the Lords commandements,
and glad both heart and minde ;
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blinde.
- 9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgements of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether.
- 10 And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold, I ſay :
The honie and the honie comb
are not ſo ſweet as they.
- 11 By them thy ſervant is forewarnd
to have God in regard :
And in performance of the ſame
there shall be great reward.
- 12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errores of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my ſecret ſins,
which are in me moſt ripe.
- 13 And keep me that presumptuous ſins
prevail not over me,
And ſo ſhall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
- 14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my redemer and my strength
O Lord thou art alone.
- Exaudiat te Dom. Psal. xx. T. S.
- 1 N trouble and adverſitie
the Lord God hear thee ſtill,
The majestic of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill ;
- 2 And ſend thee from his holy place
hifelpat every need,
And ſo in Son ſtablifl theſe
and make thee ſtrong indeed.
- 3 Rememb'ring well the ſacrifice
that now to him is done :
And ſo receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.
- 4 According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee,
And all thy counſel and device
full well perform may he.

- 5 We shall rejoice when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
- 6 The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And sent him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.
- 7 In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horsestruth:
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
- 8 They fall down flat, but we do rise
and stand up fleshly.
- 9 Now save and help us, Lord and king,
on thee when we do cry.
- Domine in virtute. Psal. xxij. T.S.
- Lord how joyfull is the king
in thy strength and thy power!
How vehemently doth he rejoice
in thee his Saviour!
- 2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast denied
of that he did require.
- 3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold,
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.
- 4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life; yea such a life
as ever shall endure.
- 5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.
- 6 Thou wilt give him felicity
that never shall decay,
And with thy cheessfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.
- 7 For why? the king doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail:
Wherefore his goodnessse and his grace
will not that he shall quail.
- 8 But let thine enemies see thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Finde out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.
- 9 And like an oven burn them, Lord,
in fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
- 10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.
- 11 For why? much mischief did they muse
against thy holy name:
Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to perform the same.
- 12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bowstrings readily against thine enemies face.
- 13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore in thy strength every hour:
So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

Dens , Dens mens. Psal. xxij. T. S:

- God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and crie?
- 2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both crie and call:
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
- 3 Even thou that in thy sanctuarie
and holy place dost dwell, Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
- 4 And he in whom our fathers sold
had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them ayedeliver.
- 5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But I am now become a worm
more like then any man:
An outcast whom the people scorn
with all the spight they can.
- 7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and on this wise they say,
- 8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love, Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.
- 9 But Lord out of my mothers womb
I came by thy behest:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope
while I did suck her breast.
- 10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou haft been e're my God.
- The second part.
- 11 Then Lord depart not now from me
in this my present grief,
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
- 12 So many buls do compasse me
that be full strong of head:
Yea buls so fat as though they had
in Basan field been fed.
- 13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:
Much like a lion roaring out
and ramping for his prey.
- 14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joyns in sunder break,
My heart doth in my body melt
like wax against the heat.
- 15 And like a potsher'drieth my strength,
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
- 16 And many dogs do compasse me,
and wicked counseleke Conspire against me cursedly,
they pierce my hands and feet.

- 17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
18 My garments they dividedeke
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might besall.
19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far from me at my great need:
But rather, sith thou art my strength,
to help me, Lord, make speed.
20 And from the sword, Lord, save my soul
by thy might and thy power:
And keep my soul thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.
21 And from the lions mouth, that would me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns
Lord safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record:
And in thy church shall praise the name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

- 23 All ye that fear him praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him:
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awrie
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crie.
25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy name.
26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd,
and those that do their never
To know the Lord, shall praise his name,
their hearts shall live for ever.
27 Allcoasts of th' earth shall praise the Lord
and turn to him for grace:
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.
28 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their governour
and king for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:
And in his presence worship him
and bowe their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord
while any world shall last.
31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and al his works of wonder.

Dominus regit me. Psal. xxiiij. W. W.

THe Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing
whereof I stand in need?

- 2 He doth me sold in coars most saue,
the tender grasse fast by:
And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.

- 3 And when I feel my self neer lost,
then doth he me home take,
Conducting me in his right paths
even for his own names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaths doore,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crooke
I am comforted still.

- 5 Thou hast my table richly deckt
in despight of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refresh't,
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally while breath doth last thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

- My shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
2 In pastures fair with waters calm
he sets me forth to feed:
3 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my minde in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy name.

- 4 Ye although I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
5 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt, O Lord, fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.

- 6 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me;
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling-place shall be.

Dominus terra. Psal. xxiiij. J. H.

- THe earth is all the Lords, withall
her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure,
2 For he hath fastly sounded it
above the seas to stand,
And laid alow the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.

- 3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,
Or passe into thy holy place,
there to continue still?
4 Whose hands are harmles, and whose heart
no spot there doth desile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile.

- 5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
shall place in blisfull night,
And God is God and Saviour shall yeeld to him his right.

6 This

6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.

7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.
8 Who is the king of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,
The mighty Lord in battle stout,
and trial of the sword.

9 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
10 Who is the King of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdom and the royalties
of glorious state is his.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxv. T. S.

1 Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guid most just:
2 Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
Let not my foes rejoice,
nor make a scorn of me;
3 And let them not be overthrown
that put their stuff in thee.

But shame shall them besally
which harm them wrongfully:
4 Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes unto me, Lord, descrie.
5 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.

6 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee Lord remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
7 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity
Lord have me in thy minde.
8 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guid:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go aside.

9 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his wayes
the lowly and the meek.
10 For all the wayes of God
are truth and mercy both,
To them that keep his testament
the witnesse of his troth.

The second part.

11 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord, I thee intreat
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.

12 Who so doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.

13 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand,
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.

14 All those that fear the Lord
know his secret intent:
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

15 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance,
That pluckt thy feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.

16 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my mone:
For I am poor and desolate,
and comfortlesse alone.

17 The troubles of my heart
are multipli'd indeed: Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.

18 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain:
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.

19 O Lord behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that fain would live in peace.

20 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me:
And let me not be overthrown
because I trust in thee.

21 Let my simple purenesse
me from mine enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldest me defend.

22 Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xxvi. T.S.

1 Ord be my judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain:
I trust in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain.

2 Prove me my God, I thee desire
my wayes to search and try:
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espy.

3 Thy goodness laid before my face
I durst behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.

4 I do not lust to haunt or use
with men whose deeds are vain:
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitfull train.

5 I much abhor the wicked sort,
their deeds I do despise:
I do not once to them resort
that hurtfull things devise.

6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright :
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.

7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee,
And so declare how wondrous wayes
thou hast been good to me.

8 O God thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell:
I have delight and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

9 O shut not up my soul with them
in sin that take their fill ;
Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.
10 Whose hands are heapt with craft & guil,
their lives thereof are full:
And their right hand with wrench and wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and dayes to serve :
Have mercy, Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.
12 My foot is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xxvij. J. H.

T He Lord is both my health and light,
shall man make medismayd?
Sith God doth give me strength and might,
why should I be afraid ?
2 While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to brall,
And think to eat me up, at length themselves have caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp against me lie,
my heart is not afraid :
In battel pight if they will try,
I trust in God for aid.
4 One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny :
For which I pray, and will desire
till he to me apply :

That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beauty of his face,
and view his temple well.
5 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

6 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and cleane deface,
that compasse me about.
Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise :
With psalms and songs I will apply to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

7 Lord hear the voyce of my request,
for which to thee I call :
Have mercy, Lord, on me oppress,
and send me help withall.

8 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace :
Then seek my face, sayst thou to me ;
Lord, I will seek thy face.

9 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guid.
10 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.

11 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.
12 Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes :
For they surmisse against me still false witness to depose.

13 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast,
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
in life that aye shall last.
14 Trust still in God whose whole thou art,
his will abide thou must,
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Dom. clamabo. Psal. xxvij. T. S.

T Thou art, O Lord, my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave :
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
2 The voice of thy suppliant hear,
that unto thee doth cry :
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.

3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert,
That speak right fair unto their friends,
and think full ill in heart.
4 According to their handy work,
as they deserve indeed,
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law ne yet his lore :
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint
that heards so willingly !

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress :
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist :
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord blesse, guide, and preserve :
Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Afferite Domini. Psal. xxix. T. S.

Give to the Lord, ye potentates,
ye rulers of the world,
Give ye all praise, honour and strength
unto the living Lord.
2 Give glory to his holy name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his majestic
within his holy throne.
3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.
4 The voyce of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.
5 The voyce of God doth rend and break
the cedar-tress so long:
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong:
6 And makes them leaplike as a calf,
or else the unicorn,
Not onely trees but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.
7 His voyce divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cades.
9 It makes the hindes for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his temple every man
his glorie doth proclaim.
10 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reigne as Lord and King forever and for aye.
11 The Lord will give his people power
in vertue to increase:
The Lord will blesse his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Dom. Psal. xxx. J. H.

All laud and praise with heart and voice,
O Lord, I give to thee,
Which didst not make my foes rejoyce,
but hast exalted me.
2 O Lord my God, to thee I cri'd
in all my pain and grief:
Thou gav'st an ear, and didst provide
to eas me with relief.
3 Of thy good will thou hast cald back
my soul from hell to save:
Thou didst revive when strength did lack,
and kepit me from the grave.
4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see the goodness of the Lord:
In memory of his majesty
rejoyce with one accord.
5 For why? his anger but a spae
doth last and slack again:
But in his favour and his grace
awyses doth life remain.
Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore
shall lode with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace
hadst sent me strength and aid:
But when thou turn'st away thy face,
my mind was sore dismayed.
8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee, O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and prayed both day and night.
9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my dayes?
Doth dust declare thy majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?
10 Wherefore my God some pitie take,
O Lord I thee desire:
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.
11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo
into a chearefull voyce:
The mourning weed thou tookst me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.
12 Wherefore my soul uncessantly
shall sing unto thy praise:
My Lord my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

In te Domine. Psal. xxxi. J. H.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.
2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:
Be thou my rock and house of stome,
my fence in time of need.
3 For why? as stones thy strength is tryde,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names sake be thou my guid,
and lead me in thy power.
4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.
5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my spirit which is thy due:
For why? thou hast redemedit,
O Lord my God most true.
6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:
When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.
7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowst my soul full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me overcharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail,
some pitie on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail,
my womb for wo doth ake.

- 10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my yeares in wo are past,
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.
- 11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismaid:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born
to see me are afraid.
- 12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they find
as in a broken pot.
- 13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did stay,
How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my lief away.
- 14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be overthrod:
For I confesse and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.
- 15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.
- 16 To me thy servant, Lord, expresse
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me, Lord, for thy goodnessse,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

- 17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in the grave to fall.
- 18 O Lord make dumb their lips out right,
which are addict to lies,
And cruelly with pride and spight
against the just devise.
- 19 O how great good hast thou in store
laid up full safe for them
That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men!
- 20 Thy presence shall them fence and guid
from all proud prags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.
- 21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far,
Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.
- 22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress,
Lo, I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
- 23 Ye saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guid:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
- 24 Be strong and God shall stay your heart,
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxij. T. S.

The man is blest whose wickednesse
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sin and wickednesse
is hid and also coverid.

- 2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sins.
Which in his heart bath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therin.
- 3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint,
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily moan and plaint.
- 4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to drinessse did convert.
- 5 I did therefore confess my fault,
and all my sins discover:
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive
and all my sins passe over.
- 6 The humble man shall pray therefore
and seek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.
- 7 When trouble and adversitie
do compasse me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou doest rid me out of tribulacion.
- 8 Come hither and I will he teache
how thou shalt walk aright:
I will thee guide as by selfe, for I have learn'd by proof and sight.
- 9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule,
Whose mouth without a rein or bit,
from harm thou canst not rule.
- 10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God
his goodnessse shall remain.
- 11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voynce:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
beglad and eterejoyce.
- Exultate justi. Psal. xxxijj. J. H.
- Y Righteous in the Lord rejoice;
it is a seemly sight
That upright men with thankfullye
should praise the Lord of might.
- 2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in psalms and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among
that soundeth with ten strings.
- 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
- 4 For why? his word is everture,
his works and all his wayes.
- 5 To judgement, equity, and right
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.
- 6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:
Their hosts and powers every one his breath to passe hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shars:
And hid them in shodepeh tare,
as in an house of hose laced gay.

B All

- 8 All men on earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:
Yet that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
- 9 What he commanded wrought it was
at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.
- 10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
- 11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.
- The second part.
- 12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guid is known:
Whom he doth choose of meer accord
to take them as his own.
- 13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on mortal men by high exaltation.
- 14 Considering from his seat of migh
the dwellers of the earth.
- 15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth its same:
For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.
- 16 A king that trusteth in his host
shall noughr prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast shall fall for all his strength.
- 17 The troupes of horsemen eke shall fail,
their sturdy steeds shall sterve:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.
- 18 But lo, the eyes of God intend
and watch to aid the just:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodnessse trust.
- 19 That he of death and great distresse
may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
- 20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.
- 21 Our soul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might:
For why in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.
- 22 Therefore let thy goodnoise, O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we alwayes with one accord
do onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiiij. T. S.

- I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes,
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
- 2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voyce:
That humble men and mortifi'd
may haue and forejoye.

- 3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord,
And let us now extol his name
together with one accord.
- 4 For I my selfe be sought the Lord,
he answered me again,
And me delivered incontinent
from all my fear and pain.
- 5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:
Their countenance shall not bedashe,
they needit not to fear.
- 6 This silly wretch for some relief
unto the Lord did call;
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.
- 7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
- 8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just:
O happy man that maketh him
his onely stay and trust!
- 9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing:
For they that fear the living Lord
are sure to lack nothing.
- 10 The lions shall be hunger bit,
and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.
- The second part.
- 11 Come neir therefore my children dear,
and to my words give ear:
I shall you teach the perf'ct way,
how ye the Lord shoulde fear.
- 12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life?
- 13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.
- 14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Enquire for peace and quietnesse,
and follow it with speed.
- 15 For why the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent:
His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.
- 16 But he doth frown and bent his brow
upon the wicked train:
And cuts away the memorie
that should of them remain.
- 17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so,
That out of pain and miserie
forthwith he leis them go.
- 18 The Lord is kind and straight at hand
to such as be contrite:
He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poor and meek in sprite.
- 19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.
- 20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep bis very bones alway,

B 4 That

That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay, 21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:
And such a hate the righteous man
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Iudica me Dom. Psal. xxxv. J. H.

Lord plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.
2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dresse:
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:
That thou unto my soul mayst say,
lo I thy help at hand.
4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill:
Let them turn back, and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust:
And that the angel of our God
their might away may thrust.
6 Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slipprie like to fall:
And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their grin:
And for no cause have digg'd a cave
to take my soul therein.
8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord destroy them all:
Let them be trapt in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my soul, my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may rejoice,
and in his saving health.
10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree:
O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what man is like to thee?

The second part.

Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong:
And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
11 My cruel foes against me rise
to witness things untrue:
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

12 Where I to them did ow good will,
they quit me with disdain:
That they shold pay my good with ill
my soul doth sore complain.

13 When they were sick I mournd therefore and clad my self in sack:
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.

14 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did myself behave:
As one that maketh wofull cheer
about his mothers grave.
15 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout:
Yea abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout:

16 The belly-gods and flattering train,
that all good things desire,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.
17 Lord when wilt thou amend this gear?
why dost thou stay and pause?
O rid my soul mine onely dear,
out of these lions claws.

18 An then will I give thanks to thee
before the church alwayes:
And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.
19 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causesse me assault.

The third part.

20 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrve:
They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
21 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they snee:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

22 But Lord thou seest what wayes they take,
cease not this gear to mend:
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
23 Awake, arise and stir abroad,
defend me in my right:
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

24 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God, set me free:
And let them not their pride expresse,
nor triumph over me.
25 Let not their hearts rejoice and crie,
there, there, this gear goes trim:
Nor give them cause to say on high,
we have our will on him.

26 Confound them with rebuke and shame,
that joy when I do mourn:
And pay them home with spight and blame,
that brag at me with scorn.
27 Let them be glad and eke rejoice,
which love mine upright way:
And they all times with heart and voice
shall praisethe Lord, and say,

Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.

28 Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise:
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praises always.

Dixit mihi Ps. Psal. xxxvij. J. H.

THe wicked with his works unjust
doth thus perswade his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his fear is set apart.
2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.

3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
histongue no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
4 When he should sleep, then doth he muse
his mischiefs to fulfill:
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
5 But Lord thy goodnessse doth ascend
above the heavens high:
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudie skie.
6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is exprest:
Thy judgements like to seas most deep,
thou say'st both man and beast.

7 Thy mercie is above all things,
O God it doth excell:
In trust whereof, as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plenty at their will:
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.

9 For why? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee,
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
10 From such asthee desire to know
let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.

11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord, of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assaile,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their device shall fall
that wicked works maintaine:
They shall be overthrown withall,
and never rise again.

Noli aemulari. Psal. xxxvij. W. W.

Gudge not to see the wicked men
in wealth to flourish still:
Nor yet envie such as to ill
have bent and set their will.
2 For as green grasse and flourishing herbs
are cut, and wither away:
So shall their great prosperitie
soon passe, fade, and decay.

3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well giveth thy minde:
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there esure food shalt find.
4 In God set al thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.

5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs
on God with perfect trust,
And thou shalt see with patience
th' effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name
he will clear as the light:
So that the Sun even at noon day
shall not shine half so bright.

7 Be still therefore, and fedsafly
on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off despite, envie, and hate,
at least in any wise:
Their wicked steps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guise.

9 Fore every wicked man will God
destroy, both more and lesse:
But such a trust in him are sure
the land for to possesse.
10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train,
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land:
In rest and peace they shall rejoice,
for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious
against the just conspire:
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.

13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn:
For why? he sees their term approch,
when they shall sigh and mourn.
14 The wicked have their sword outdrawn,
their bow eke have they bent,
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as he the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pierce their heart,
which waste kill the just:
Likewise the bow shall break to shiver,
wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.

17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow:
Where contrarie he doth preserve
the humble men and low.
18 He sees by his great providence
the good mens trade and way:
And will give them inheritance
which never shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard beslead:
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.
20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord,
Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs grease,
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never payes again:
Whereas the just by liberal gifts
makes many glad and fain.
22 For they whom God doth blesse, shall have the land for heritage,
And they whom he doth curse, likewise
shall perish in his rage.
23 The Lord the just mans wayes doth guid,
and gives him good successe:
To every thing he takes in hand
he sendeth good addresse.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand
at need and doth not fail.
25 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man lest, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.
26 But gives alwayes most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
Bless children and posterity
receive of God their need.
27 Flee vice therefore and wickednesse,
and vertue do embrase:
So God shall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
28 For God so loveth equity,
and shewsto his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but destroyes the wicked race.
29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
30 The just mans mouth shall everspeak
of matters wise and high:
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equitie.
31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
32 The wicked like a ravening wolf
the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high decree,
Flourishing in all wealth and flore,
as doth the lawrell tree.
36 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
38 As for transgressours, woe to them,
destroid they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

39 But the salvation of the just doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his mere grace and love.
40 God doth them help, save, and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilest that they
in him do put their trust.

Dominique. Psal. xxxvij. J. H.

- Put me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavie wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire 2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth preisse me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appearerh any more.
3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sin.
4 For lo my wicked doings, Lord,
above my head are gone:
A greater load then I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.
5 My wounds stink and are festred so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnesse
betideth unto me.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought in trouble and distresse:
That I go wailing all the day
in dolefull heaviness.
7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roar for gries of heart.
9 Thou knowst, Lord, my desire, my groans are open in thy sight:
10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth faint,
mine eyes have lost their light.

11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen far away
are me departed fro:
12 They that did seek my life laid snares,
and they that sought the way
To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischiefe all the day.

The second part.

- 13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
16 This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
17 And truly I poor wretch am set
in place, a wofull wight:
And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.
18 For while that I my wickednesse
in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinfull deeds
my sorrows do expresse:
19 My foes do still remaine alive,
and mightie are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.
20 They stand against me that my good
with evil do repay:
Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.
21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away:
22 Haste me to help, my Lord my God,
my safetie and my stay.
- Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. J. H.*
- I Said, I will look to my wayes
for fear I shold go w:ong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.
- 2 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but soore against my will.
- 3 My heart wuxt hot within my breast,
with musing, thought, and doubt:
Which did increase and stir the fire,
at last these words burst out;
- 4 Lord number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past,
So that I may be certified
how long my life shall last.
- 5 Lord thou hast pointed out my life
in length muchlike a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee.
so vain is every man.
- 6 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy.
- 7 Now Lord, sith things this wisedo frame,
what help do I desire?
O struth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

- 8 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand,
And make me not a scorn to foole
that nothing understand.
- 9 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.
- 10 Lord take from me thy scourge and plague,
I can them not withstand:
I faint and pine away for feare
of thy most heavy hand.
- 11 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wan,
As doth a cloth that moths have stred,
so vain a thing is man.
- 12 Lord hear my suit and give good heed,
regard my tears that fall:
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
- 13 O spare a little, give me space
my strength forth to restore,
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.
- Expectans expectavi. Psal. xl. J. H.*
- I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to hear.
- 2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guid my way.
- 3 To me he taught a psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad,
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes
unto the Lord our God.
- 4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid,
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.
- 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and feign.
For Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatness far do passe, Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.
- 6 When I intend and do devise
thy works abroad to shew,
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know,
Burnt-offerings thou delight'st not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin
thou dost no man require.
- Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou, O Lord, hast open made mine ears to hear withall.
- 7 But then said I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be:

For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,

8 That I, O God, should do thy mind,
which thing doth like me well:
For in my heart thy law I find
fast placed there to dwell.
9 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great respects I tell:
Behold, my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord thou knowst full well.

The second part.

10 I have not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth:
But I declare and have express
thy truth and saving health.
I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the church I show.

11 Thy tender mercy, Lord, from me
withdraw thou not away:
But let thy love and veritie
preserve me still for aye.
12 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about:
My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot spie them out.

For why? in number they exceed
the hairs upon my head:
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
13 With speed send help and set me free,
O Lord, I thee require:
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.

14 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spill:
Drive back my foes, and them desame
that wish and would me ill.
15 For their ill seats do them desacie,
that would deface my name:
Always at me they rail and crie,
he on him, he for shame.

16 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee always:
That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.
17 But as for me, I am but poor,
opprestand brought full low:
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

For why? thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay:
Wheresore my God, as thou art just,
with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xliv. T. S.

T He man is blest that carefullig
the needy to consider:
For in the season perillous
the Lord will him deliver.
2 The Lord will make him safe and sound,
and happy in the land:
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.

3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore:
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sickness and his sore.
4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my soul which is full wo
that I offended thee.

5 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away?
6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well:
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.

7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me charm,
And cast their snares how to trap
me with some mortall harm.
8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain:
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.

9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Have mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preserved:
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserved.

11 By this I know assuredly to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore:
Even so be it Lord, will I say,
even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xliv. J. H.

I ke as the hart doth breathe and bray
the well-springs to obtain;
So doth my soul desire alway
with thee, Lord, to remain.
2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw near the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight!

3 The tears all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guid?
4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedome once I had!
Therefore my soul as at pits brink
most heavie is and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,

Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most fain.
5 My soul, why art thou sad alwayes,
and freist thus in my breast?
Trust still in God; for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need
against all pain and grief:
He is my God, which with all speed
will haste to send relief.
6 And thus my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice:
The floods of evil that do fall
run over me with noise.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodnessse
and help at all assayes:
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am persuaded thusto say
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord thou art my guid and stay,
my rock and sure defensse.
Why do I then in pensivenesse
hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and vex me with their talk?
10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd,
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God thy Lord?
11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain opprest?
With thoughts why dost thy self assaile
so sore within my breast?

Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xlivij. T. S.

1 Judge and revenge my cause O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men
O Lord deliver me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why pullst thou me thees fro?
And why walk I so heavily,
oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light, and cke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace,
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheare:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and freist thus in my breast?
Still trust in God; for him to praise
I hold it always best.

By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alway
at need send me relief.

Dens auribus. Psal. xlivij. T. S.

O Ur ears have heard our fatherstell,
and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in oldertime, O Lord.
2 How thou didst cast the Gentiles out,
and stroy'dst them with strong hand:
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'lt to them their land.

3 They conquerd not by sword nor strength
the land of thy behest:
But by thy hand, thy arm and grace;
because thou lov'dst them best.
4 Thou art my king O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise.
5 Led with thy power we threw down such as did against us rise.
6 I trusted not in bow nor sword,
they could not save me sound:
7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name:
9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes,
and so were overtrud:
Our enemies robd and spoild our goods,
when we were spent abroad.
11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain:
Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.
12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou hadst thereby,
no gain at all was sought.
13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing stock:
And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

14 Thus we serve for none otheruse,
but for a common talk:
They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where ere they go or walk.
15 I am a sham'd continually,
to hear these wicked men:
Yea so I blush, that all my face
with red is covered then.
16 For why? we hear such slanderous words,
such false reports and lies:
That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatenings and their cries.
17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:
18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.

19 Yet thou hast trud us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be.
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversarie.

- 20 If we had our God's name forgot,
and help of idols sought, 21 Would not God then have tried this out?
for he doth know our thought.

 22 Nay, nay, for thy name's sake, O Lord, always are we slain thus:
As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
23 Up Lord, why sleepest thou awake,
and leave us not for all?
24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall?

 25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly, like as it were glu'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us, Lord, at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed.

Eruetavit cor meum. Psal. xlvi. J. H.

- MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall new therein
pertaineth to the king.
My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.

 2 O fairest of all men;
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.
3 About thee gird thy sword,
O prince of might elect:
With honour, glorie and renown,
thy person pure is deckt.

 4 Go forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
5 Thine arrows sharp and keen
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee
yea al thy foes, O king.

 6 Thy royall seat, O Lord,
forever shall remain:
Because the scepter of thy realm
doth righteousnesse maintain.
7 Because thou lov'it the right,
and dost the ill detest,
God, even thy God hath nointed thee
with joy above the rest.

 8 With myrrhe and favours sweet
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace passe,
therein to make thee glad.
9 Kings daughter's do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

- 10 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear:

- Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
11 Then shall the king desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

- 12 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
13 The daughter of the king
is glorious to behold:
Within her bower she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.

 14 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgins fair on her to wait,
she cometh to the king.
15 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.

- 16 In stead of parents left,
(O queen the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sons whom thou mayst set
as princes in all lands.
17 Wherefore thy holy name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xlvij. J. H.

- THE Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismaid,
he is our help at hand.
2 Though th' earth remove, we will not fear
though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.

 3 No, though the waves do rage so sore
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mighty hills.
4 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the citie of our God,
and wash his holy place.

 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell
the Lord will truly slay.
6 The heathen folk the kingdome's fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with all our heart
on Jacobs God doth lie.

- 8 Come here and see with mind and thoughts
the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

- 9 By him all wars are hush't and gone,
which countries did conspire:
Their bows he brake and spears each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.
10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnis gentes. Psal. xlviij. J. H.

- YE people all with one accord
clap hands and eke rejoice:
Be glad and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.
2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:
A mighty King he is truly,
in all the earth extold.
3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall:
And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall.
4 For us the heritage he chose,
which we possest alone,
The flourishing worship of Jacob
his welbeloved one.
5 Our God ascended up on high
with joy and pleasant noise:
The Lord goes up above the skie
with trumpets roiall voyce.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
7 For God is king of all the earth,
all skilfull praises sing.
8 God on the heathen reigns, and sits
upon his holy throne:
9 The princes of the people have them joyned every one To Abrahams people: for our God,
which is exalted high,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlviii. J. H.

- Great is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced still Within the city of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeneth all the land:
The city of the mighty King
on her north side doth stand.
3 Within the palaces thereof
God is a refuge known:
4 For lo, the kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
5 But when they did behold it so,
they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear,

- 6 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall gotravail by and by.
7 Asthou with eastern-winde the ships
upon the sea dost break,
So they were stroy'd; and even as
we heard our fathers speak,
8 So in the city of the Lord
we saw as it wastold, Yea in the city which our good
for ever will uphold.
9 O Lord we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace:
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.
10 O Lord according to thy name
for ever is thy praise:
And thy righthand, O Lord, is full of righteouſneſſe alwayes.
11 Let, for thy judgement, Sion mount fullfilled be with joyes:
And eke of Juda, grant O Lord,
the daughters to rejoice.
12 Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round abouther go:
And tell the towers that thereupon
are bnilded on a row.
13 And mark ye well her bulwarksall,
behold her towers there:
That ye may tell thereofto them
that after shall be here.
14 For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he:
Yea and unto the death also
our guider shall he be.
- Audite haec omnes. Psal. xlix. J. H.
- All people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell,
2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth shall make discourse
of many things right wise:
In understanding shall mine heart
his study exercise.
4 I will encline mine ear to know
the parable so dark:
And open all my doubtfull speech
in meeter on my harp.
5 Why should I fear affliction,
or any carefull toil:
Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?
6 For as for such as riches have,
wherein their trust is most;
And they which of their treasures great themselves do brag and boast;
7 There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem,
Or that can give a price to God sufficient for him.
8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain:
Or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remain.

¶ They

9 They see wise men as well as fools,
Subject unto death's bands :
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.
10 Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.
11 Yet shall no man alwayes enjoy high honour, wealth, and rest ;
12 But shall at length taste of death's cup,
as well as the bruit beast.

The second part.

13 And though they try their foolish thoughts
to be most lewd and vain :
Their children yet approove their talk,
and in like sin remain.
14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave :
Death shall them eat, and in that day
the just shall lordship have.
Their image and their roiall port shall fade and quite decay,
When as from house to pit they passe
with wo and wel-away.
15 But God will surely preserve me
from death and endless pain :
Because he will of his good grace
my soul receive again.
16 If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not I say therefore :
Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.
17 For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive :
His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.
18 Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under sun :
And others likewise flatter him,
saying, all is well done.
19 And presuppose he live as long as did his fathers old ;
Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to death's fold.
20 Thus man to honour God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider :
But like brute beasts so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Dens Decrum. Psal. I. W. W.

THe mightie God,
th'Eternall hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke :
Even from the east,
and so forth to the west.
2 From toward Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent :
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.
3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face ;
A great tempest
shall round about him race.

Psalmt.

4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equity and right :
5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble :
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.
6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is Judge
of all things more and lesse.
7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal ;
List Israel,
I will thee nought conceal.
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee 8 Forgiving not
all manner offerings to me.
9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall :
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woodss;
On thousand hills
cattel are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaings,
All beasts are mine
which haunt the fields and fountaing.
12 Hungrie if I were,
I would not thee it tell ;
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.
13 Eat I the flesh
of great buis or bullocks ?
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the flockes ?
14 Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God everliving.
15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be :
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wicked
thus saith the eternall God, Why doest thou preach
my laws and heft abroad :
17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hatest to be
by discipline reformed ?
My words I say
thou doest reject and hate :
18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou runst with him,
and so your prey do seek,
And art all one
with bands and ruffianseke.
19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander :
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 They

20 Thou sittest musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mother son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and while I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I stayd so long,
Like to thy self:
Yet though I keep long silence,
Once shall thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Consider this
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Lest without help
I spoil you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

THe God of gods, the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.
2 From Sion his fair place,
his glory bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.
4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth to judge and try,
his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my saints saith he,
my faithfull flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.
6 And when these things are tried the heavens shall record
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry;
I am thy God thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.
8 I do not say to thee
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more then I do lack.

9 Thinkst thou that I do need thy cattel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on goats out of thy fold?
10 Nay; all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fills:
And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wild on the hills.

The second part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.
12 Then though I hungered sore,
what need I ought of thine, Sith that the earth with her great store
and all therein is mine?

13 To bulls flesh have I mind
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I find
the blood of goats to drink?
14 Give to the Lord his praise.
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows alwayes
unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me
when ought would work thee blamē,
And I will surely deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my name.
16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say,

With what a face dar'st thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?
17 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behind thy back.

The third part.

18 When thou a thief dost see
by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou runst and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile.
Thou lik'lt it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.

19 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and desame:
Thy tongue is taught to crait and lie,
and still doth use the same.

20 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so near:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers son most dear.

21 Hereat while I do wink,
as though I did not see,
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.
But sure I will not let
to strike, when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.

22 Mark this I you requir,
that have not God in minde:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to find.

23 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly wayes.

Miserere mei. Psal. Iij. W. W.

- O Lord consider my distress,
and now with speed some pity take:
My sins deface, my faults redresse,
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.
- 2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinfull act,
And parifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloody fact.
- 3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excesse:
My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.
- 4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgements just and right.
- 5 It is too manifest alas
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea of my mother so born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
- 6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.
- 7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
thesnow in whitnesse shall I passe.
- 8 Therefore O Lord such joy mesend,
that inwardly I may finde grace,
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespassse.
- 9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
- 10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant Spirit in me let test,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

- 11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those joyes again
which I was wont in thee to find:
And let me thy free spirit retain,
which unto thee may stir my mind.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sin.
- 14 O God that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue unty,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.

- 17 The heavy heart, the minde opprest
O Lord thou never dost reject:
And, to speak truth, it is the best,
and of all sacrifice th' effect.
- 18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls, and love it still.
- 19 Thou shalt accept then our offrings
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

- Have mercy on me, Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.
- 2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:
- 3 For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eyn.
- 4 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face:
That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou mayest be ride,
And eke in judging, that the doom
may passe upon thy side.
- 5 Behold, in wickednesse my kind
and shape I did receive:
And lo my sinfull mother eke
in sin did me conceive.
- 6 But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.
- 7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.
- 8 Of joy and gladnesse make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 From the beholding of my sins,
Lord turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse
do utterly deface.
- 10 O God create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a stalle sprit.
- 11 Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
- 12 The comfort of thy saving health
give me again I pray.
- 13 With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

- 14 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:

That

That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.
15 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unloose:
The praises of thy Majestie
my mouth shall so disclose.

16 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.
17 A troubled spirit is sacrificio
delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart
God thou wilt not despise.
18 In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem
upward may be the wall.
19 Burnt-offerings, gifts, and sacrifice of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris? Psal. liij, J. H.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwayes?
2 Why doth thy minde yet still devise such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a rafour sharp.
3 On mischief why setst thou thy mind,
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to find
then bring the truth to light.
4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guil,
in mischief, bloud, and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.
5 Therefore shall God for aye confound
and pluck thee from thy place, Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.
6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord;
And in reproch of thee withall
crie out with one accord, 7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.
8 But I as olive fresh and green
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.
9 For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy name alwayes,
wherein thy saints rejoice.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. liij, T. S.

The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all
hath utterly denied.

They are corrupt, and they also
a hainous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

2 The Lord lookt down on sons of men,
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.
3 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.
4 Do not all wicked workers know that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.
5 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismayed,
Where as there was no cause at all
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones that thee besieg'd
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.
6 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore that erst was captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Dens in nomine. Psal. liij, J. H.

God save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodness sake:
Unto the strength, Lord, of the same
I do my cause betake.
2 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
Bowe down thyself to me and hear
the words that I do say.

3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.
4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is staid
the Lord doth ever stand:

5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
6 An offering of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,
And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eye with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lv. J. H.

O God give ear, and do apply
to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and crie,
hide not thy self away.
2 Take heed to me, grant my request,
and answer me again:
With plaints I pray full sore opprest,
great grief doth me constrain.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries
oppreſſe me through despight:
And ſo the wicked ſort likewiſe
to vex me have delight.
4 For they in counſel do conſpire
to charge me with ſome ill:
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do purſue me ſtill.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast:
The terrors and the dread of death
do work me much unref.
Such dreadfull fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horrour whelmeth me withall,
that I no ſhift can make.

6 But I did ſay, Who will give me
the ſwift and pleasant wings
Of ſome fair dove, that I may flie,
and ref me from theſe things?
7 Lo then I would go far away,
to flie I would not ceafe:
And I would hide my ſelf, and ſtay
in ſome great wildernesſe.

8 I would be gone in all the haſte,
and not abide behind:
That I were quit and overpaſt
theſe blaſts of boiſterous winde.
9 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull their devilish double tongue:
For I have ſpied their citie full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

10 Which things both night and day through-do close her as a wall: (out.)
In midſt of her is miſchief stout,
and ſorrow eke withall.
11 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her ſtreets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The ſecond part.

12 If that my foes did ſeek my shame,
I might it well abide,
From openenemis check and blame
ſome where I could me hide:
13 But thou it was my fellow dear,
which friendſhip diſt pretend,
And diſt my ſecret counſel hear,
as my familiar friend.

14 With whom I had delight to talk
in ſecret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

15 Let death in haſte upon them fall,
and ſend them quick to hell:
For miſchief raigneth in the hall
and parlour where they dwell.

16 But I unto my God will crie,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will ſuccour me.

17 At morning, noon, and evening tide,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I ſo instantly have cride,
he doth not ſay me nay.

18 To peace he ſhall reſore me yet,
though war be now at hand:
Although the number be full great
that would againſt me ſtand.

19 The Lord that firſt and laſt doth raign,
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and puniſh them full ſore.

For ſure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord.

20 Upon their friendſthey lay their hands
which were in covenant knit:
Of friendſhip to negleſt the bands
they paſſe or care no whit.

21 While they have war within their hearts,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were ſmooth as oil,
they cut as sharp as ſwords.

22 Caſt thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nouiſh thee:
For in no wife will he accord
the just in thrall to ſee.

23 But God shall caſt them deep in pit
that thirſt for blood alwayes:
He will no guilful man permit
to live out half his daies.
Though ſuch be quite deſtroyed and gone,
in thee O Lord I truſt:
I ſhall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and iuft.

Miferere mei. Psal. lvij. J. H.

Have mercie Lord on me I pray,
for man would me devour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.
2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
to ſwallow me outright:
To fight againſt me many rise,
O thou moſt high of might.

3 When they would make me moſt afraid
with boaſts and brags of pride:
I truſt in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.

4 Gods promife I do minde and praise,
O Lord I ſtick to thee:
I do not care at all assayes
what fleſh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or ſpake,
they wreſt them at their will:
And all the counſel that they take
is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay:
They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus escape on mischief set?
thou God on them wilt frown:
For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.

8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee,
and on my tears doth look:
Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
so I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began,
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my vows alwayes:
And I O Lord all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou doest defend,
and keepest my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. Ivij. J. H.

Take pitie for thy promise sake,
have mercy Lord on me:
For why? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.
Within the shadow of thy wings
I set myself full fast,
Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

2 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

3 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spight:
That to devour me have assaid
his mercy, truth, and might.

4 I lead my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.
Their teeth are spears and arrows long,
as sharp as I have seen:
They wound and cut with their quick tongue
like swords and weapons keen.

5 Setup and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

6 They lay their net and do prepare a privie cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fallen in it.

7 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy alwayes:
My heart, I say, doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

8 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp, and string:
For I myself before the day
will rise, rejoice, and sing.

9 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God,
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.

10 His mercie doth extend as far as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any star
that shineth in the skie.

11 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

Si vere utique. Psal. Ivij. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust
to judge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgement true and just,
not knowing meed or night?

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consent,
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise:
And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lies.

4 In them the poysen and the breath
of serpents do appear:
Yea like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop here ear,

5 Because she will not hear the voyce
of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:
The tusksthat in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth right:
The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:
The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them ear they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth hem good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell,
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. lxx. J. H.

Send aid and save me from my foes,

O Lord, I pray to thee:

Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands;
And pitie none that do rebell,
and in their mischiefs stand.

6 At night they stir and seek about,
ashounds they howl and grin:
And all the citie clean throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say,
what? none doth hear our words.

8 But Lord thou hast their wayes spide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,
O Lord, doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fortessence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words and truthlesse tongue
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth raigne.

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnessse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God
at need in all assayes.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid;
O Lord I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence, and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Psal. lx. J. H.

O Lord thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take;
return to us O God.

2 Thy might did move the landes fore,
that it in funder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bowe and quake.

3 With hevie chance thou plaguest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as fear thy name
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee:
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale,
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is given to my hand,
Manasses mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guid.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine ought to seek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at thistide unto the citie strong?
Or who to Edom will me guid,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land, and coasts?
Our wars in hand thou wouldest not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain:
The helpe that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain.

12 But through our God we shall have might
to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxx. J. H.

Regard O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee:
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me.

2 From out the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad,
In grief and anguish of my heart
I cry to thee O God.

Upon the rock of thy great power
my wosull mind repose;

3 Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.
4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his name.
6 The king shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his dayes:
That he from age to age shall reign,
for evermore always.

7 That he may have a dwelling place
before the Lord for aye;
O let thy mercie, truth, and grace,
defend him from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for ever still with praise unto thy name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

Nonne Deo. Psal. Ixij. I. H.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health, and aide:
He is my stay, that no pretence
shall make me much dismayd.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye use craft? sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth love, ye seek alwayes
to put him to the worse:
Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
From all ill fears me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power
can move me out of place.

7 God is my glorie and my health,
my souls desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.
8 Oh have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord:
Pour out your hearts to him, and say,
our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a sleight:
With things most vain do them compare,
for they can keep no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbery, nor stealth,
let vain delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did tell,
which here to mind I call:

He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kinde,
thy mercy doth exceed:
So that all sorts with thee shall finde
according to their deed.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. Ixij. T. S.

O God my God, I watch betime
to come to thee in haste:
For why? my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.
And in this barren wildernes
where waters there are none,
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

2 That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength, and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy temple bright.
3 For why? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud and praise.

4 And whilst I live, I will not fail to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet,

6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the nightide.
7 For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyfull guid.
8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
them death shall soon devour.

10 The sword shall them devour each one,
their carcases shall feed
The hungry foxes which do run their prey to seek at need.
11 The king and all men shall rejoice,
that do professe Gods word:
For liars mouths shall then be stopt,
which have the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Ixij. J. H.

O Lord unto my voice give ear,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill fears do work.

3 Who whet their tongues as we have seen,
men whet and sharp their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.
4 With privie sleights shoot they their shaft,
the upright man to hit:
The just unaware to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.

- 5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in counsele thus they cry,
To use deceit let us not dread,
what? who can it espie?
- 6 What way to hurt thy talk and muse
alltimes within their heart:
They all consult what seats to use,
each doth invent his part.
- 7 But yet all this shall not prevail;
when they think least upon,
God with his dart shall sure assayl
and wound them everyone.
- 8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall
shall work themselves such blame,
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
- 9 Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought,
And praise his wittie works, and tell what he to passe hath brought.
- 10 Yet shall the just in God rejoice,
still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with mind and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.
- Tenebit hymnus. Psal. lxv. J. H.*
- 1 Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth reigne
in Sion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintaine,
and their behests fulfill.
- 2 For that thou doest their prayers hear,
and dost thereto agree:
The people al both far and near
with trust shall come to thee.
- 3 Our wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But lord forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin.
- 4 The man is blest whom thou dost choose
within thy court to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasuresihat excell.
- 5 Of thy great justice hear us God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
- 6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compast with thy power:
Thou mak'st the mountains strong and stout,
to stand in every shower.
- 7 The swelling seas thou dost asswage,
and make their streams full still:
Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
- 8 The folk that dwell full far on earth shall dread thy signes to see,
Which morn and even in great mirth
do passe with praiseto thee.
- 9 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
and thirsteth more and more,
Then with thy drops thou dost apply,
and much increase her store.
The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guid the thing.

- 10 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and blesse her fruit with all.
- 11 Thou deck'st the earth of thy good grace
with fair and pleasant crop:
Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop:
- 12 Whereby the desert shall begin
full great increase to bring:
The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
- 13 In places plain the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.
- Iubilate Deo. Psal. lxviij. T. S.*
- YE men on earth in God rejoice,
with praise set forth his name:
Exult his might with heart and voice,
give glorie to the same.
- 1 How wondersfull O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art!
- 2 Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee
full sore against their heart.
- 3 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
shall praise the name of God:
The laud thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.
- 4 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that lie
for man to passe hath brought.
- 5 He laid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had,
On foot to passe both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
- 6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.
- 7 Ye people give unto our God
due laud and thanks alwayes:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise:
- 8 Which doth endue our soul with life,
and it preserve withall:
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.
- 9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire
is that they will abide:
As workmen do when they desire to have their metal stide.
- 10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,
And there with chains and setters strong
to lie in bondage fast:
- The second part.*
- 11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign:
Though we through fire and water run,
of very grief and pain:
Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best,
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

- 13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray,
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.
- 14 The vows that with my mouth I speake
in all my gries and smart:
The vows I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.
- 15 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee
of oxen fat and rams:
Yea this is my sacrifice shall be of bullocks, goats, and lambs.
- 16 Come forth and hearken here full soon,
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poor soul hath done
to you I will record.
- 17 Full oft I call to mind his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.
- 18 But if I feel my heart within
in wicked works rejoice:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.
- 19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
- 20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

Deus misereatur. Psal. Ixvij. J. H.

- H Ave mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou a cord
the brightnesse of thy face,
- 2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row
may see thy saving health.
- 3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.
- 4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoice with mirth:
For thou with truth and right dost guid
the nations of the earth.
- 5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.
- 6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall,
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke withall.
- 7 God shall us blesse, I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway
of him shall stand in fear.

Exurget Deus. Psal. Ixvij. T.S.

- L Et God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.

- 2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blowes smoak away:
Soin the presence of the Lord,
the wicked shall decay.
- 3 But righteousmen before the Lord
shall heartily rejoice:
They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerfull in their voice.
- 4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.
- 5 The same is he that is above
within his holy place,
That father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.
- 6 Houses he gives and issue both unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bond-men out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.
- 7 When thou didst march before thy folk
th'Egyptians from among,
And broughtst them through the wildernesse
which was both wide and long:
- 8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down,
heard were great claps of thunder;
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in funder.
- 9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was wafted:
And if so be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresht.
- 10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especiall grace.
- The second part.*
- 11 God will give women causes just
to magnifie his name,
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
- 12 For puissant kings for all their power,
shall flee and take the foil,
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.
- 13 And though ye were as black as spots,
your hue shall passe the dove, Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.
- 14 When in this land God shall triumph
over kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.
- 15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others passe:
Yet Sion Gods most holy hill
doth far excell in grace.
- 16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.
- 17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.

18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all,
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay;
and such as did repine
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy temple divine.
19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death, and pain.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies head,
and break the hairy scalp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk.
22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.
23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my name:
And dogs shall have their tongues embrewed
with licking of the same.
24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.
25 The singers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play
with timbrell and with taber.
26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posteritic
give thanks with one accord.
27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthalim,
which dwelt about their coast.
28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.
29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jerusalem
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yea, and strange kings to us subdued
shall do like in those dayes:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.
30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks,
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.
31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moors most black shall stretch their hands
unto their Lord and king.

32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing psalms to God with one consent,
therefore let all accord.

33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright
Yet by the fearfull thunderclaps men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high, Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudie skie.

35 O God, thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Psal. lxix. J. H.

S AVE me, O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast:
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am sore agast.

2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground:
I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like to be drownd.

3 With crying oft I faint and quail
my throat is hoarse and drie:
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.

4 My foes that guiltless do oppresse
my soul, with hate ate led:
In number sure they are no lesse
then hairs are on my head.

Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad:
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.

5 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canst tell:
And all the faults that I commit to thee are known full well.

6 O God of hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee:
Let no man doubt or shrink away
for ought that chanceth me.

7 It is for thee and for thy sake
that I do bear this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.

8 My mothers sons, my brethren all forsake me on a row:
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.

9 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee do hear,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

10 Though I do fast, my flesh to chaste,
yea, if I weep and moan:
Yet in my teeth this gear is cast,
they passe not thereupon.

11 If I for grief and pain of heart
in sackcloth use to walk,
Then they anon will it pervert,
therof they jest and talk.

12 Both

12 Both high and low, and all the throng
that sit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.
The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief pastime
To seek which way to work me spight;
of me they sing and rhyme.

13 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.

14 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep:
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.

15 Lest with the waves I should be drownd,
and depth my soul devour,
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.

16 O Lord of hosts to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind:
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord have me in thy mind.

17 And do not from thy servant hide
nor turn thy face away:

I am opprest on every side,
in haste give ear, I say.

18 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyrannie,
acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

19 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowst and thou canst tell:
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.

20 When they with brags do break my heart,
I seek for help anon:
But finde no friends to ease my smart,
to comfort me not one.

21 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruell for to think:
And gave me in my thirst withall
strong vineger to drink.

22 Lord turn their table to a snare
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinkfull well to fare,
then trap them in the gin.

23 And let their eyes be dark and blind,
that they may nothing see:
Bowe down their backs, and do them bind,
in thralldome for to be.

24 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire
take hold upon them all.

25 As deserts drie their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

26 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou do wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

27 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(sith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

28 And raise them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their names they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth part.

29 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full sore opprest:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redrest.

30 That I may give thy name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same always with hearty thanks among.

31 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such mind thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

32 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoice them sure:
All ye that seek the Lord, behold,
your life for aye shall dure.

33 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain:
His prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

34 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea, with flood and stream;
His praises they shall declare and show,
with all that live in them.

35 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Juda's cities build:
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd.

36 His servants feed shall keep the same
all ages out of minde:
And there all they that love his name,
adwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adjutorium. Psal. lxx. J. H.

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts, with haste and speed
help, help, I thee desire.

2 With shame confound them all
that seek my soul to spill:
Rebuke them back with blame to fall
that think and wish me ill.

3 Confound them that apply
and seek to work me shame:
And at my harm do, laugh, and cry,
so, so, there goes the game!

4 But let them joyfull be in thee with joy and wealth,
Which onely trust and seek to thee,
and to thy saving health.

That they may say always
in mirth and one accord,
All glorie, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee, O Lord.

5 But I am weak and poor,
come Lord, thine aid I lack:
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slack.

In te Domine. Psal. lxxi. J. H.

MY Lord my God, in all distress
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soul oppresse,
nor once take hold on me.
2 As thou art just, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give ear and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.

3 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times resort:
Thy promise isto help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

4 Save me, my God, from wicked men,
and from their strength and power:
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.

5 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hosts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a lust
full to depend on thee.

6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth,
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth,
both evening and at morn.

7 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.

8 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee always.

9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away,
do not my soul forsake

10 Among themselves my foes enquire to take me through deceit:
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now, they said,
for God from him is gone:
Dispatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wis) there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be:
But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life:
Oppress them with rebuke also,
that fain would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assayes:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send:
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one,
with thy good help, O God,
The saving health of thee alone
to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the case,
and dost instruct me still:
Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great mind and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didst me keep and stay:
Forsake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

That I thy strength and might may show
to them that now be here:
And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a yeer.

19 O Lord thy justice doth exceed thy doings all may see:
Thy works are wonders full indeed,
oh who is like to thee!

20 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save:
Yea thou didst help and me restore,
and tookst me from the grave.
21 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintain:
Yea thou dost make all grief to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

22 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise
I will with viol sing:
My hearp shall sound thy praise alwayes,
O Israel holy King.

23 My mouth will joy with pleasant voyce
when I shall sing to thee:
And eke my soul will much rejoice,
for thou hast made me free.

24 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound,
and speak it daily still:
For grief and shame do them confound
that seek to work me ill.

Deus judicium. Psal. lxxij. J. H.

1 Ord give thy judgement to the king,
therein instruct him well:
And with his son that princely thing,
Lord let thy justice dwell.

2 That he may govern uprightly
and rule thy folk aright:
And so defend through equity
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are high unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hills apply,
in injustice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid, and make them strong:
And eke destroy for evermore
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as sun doth shine by day,
or else the moon by night.

6 Lord make the king unto the just like rain to fields new mown:
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sown.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace,
Until the moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change, and to increase.

6 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout:
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

7 The people that in deserts dwell
shall kneel to him full thick:
And all his enemies that rebell
the earth and dust shall lick.
8 The lords of all the isles thereby great gifts to him shall bring:
The kings of Saba and Arabic
give many a costly thing.

The second part.

9 All kings shall seek with one accord
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world
shall serve him at his hand.

10 For he the needy sort doth save that unto him do call:
And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

11 He taketh pitie on the poor,
that are with need opprest:
He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.

12 He shall redeem their lives from dread,
from fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

13 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.

14 The mighty mountains of his land
of corn shall bear such throng,
That it like cedar-trees shall stand
in Libanus full long.

15 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plentie it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grasse.

16 For ever they shall praise his name,
while that the sun is light:
And think them happy through the same,
all folk shall blesse his might.

17 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
to Israels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himself alone.

18 And blessed be his holy name
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen, say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. lxxij. T.S.

19 How ever it be, yet God is good and kind to Israel:
And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
20 Yet like a fool I almost slipt,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist even at a pinch
my steps awry gan glide;

3 For when I saw such foolish men,
I grudg'd and did disdain
That wicked men all things should have without turmoil or pain.

4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
as if death should them smite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and ever in good plight.

5 And free from all adversitie
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdain.

7 They are so fed that even for fat
their eyes oft-times out start,
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can wish their heart.

8 Their life is most licentious,
boasting much of the wrong
Which they have done to simple men,
and ever pride among.

9 The heavens and the living Lord
they spare not to blaspheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do esteem.

10 The people of God oft-times turn back to see their prosperous state:
And almost drink the self-same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
should know or understand These worldly things, sith wicked men
be lords of sea and land?

12 For we may see how wicked men
in riches still increase,
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in rest and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickednesse
my fantasie refrain,
And wash my hands with innocents,
and cleanse my heart in vain?

14 And suffers scourges every day,
as subject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth sustain rebuke and shame?

15 And I had almost said as they,
misliking mine estate:
But that I shoulde thy children judge
as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I berthought me how I might
this matter understand:
But yet the labour was too great
for me to take in hand:

17 Until the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
the end of all these men.

18 And namely, how thou settest them
upon a slipperie place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface,

19 Then

- 19 Then all men muse at that strange sight,
to see how suddenly
They are destroyd, dispatcht, consum'd,
and dead so horribly.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
so shall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight
shall et be and passe away.

The third part.

- 21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my minde was much opprest:
22 So sond was I and ignorant,
and in this point a beast.
23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand
thou hold'st me always fast:
24 And with thy counsel dost me guide
to glory at the last.
25 What thing is there that I can wish
but thee in heaven above?
And in the earth there is nothing
like thee that I can love.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail
but God doth fail me never:
For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.
27 And lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trut in any thing saving in thee alone.
28 Therefore will I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
thy wonders I will tell.

Vt quid Deus. Psal. lxxiiij. J. H.

- W HY art thou, Lord, so long from us
in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus
at thine own pasture sheep?
2 Lord call the people to thy thought
which have been thine so long,
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage sore and strong.

Have mind therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wouldest dwell.
3 List up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

- 4 Amid thy congregations all,
thing enemies roar, O God:
They set as signes on every wall
their banners splaid abroad.
5 As men with axes hew down trees
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.

- 6 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords
they beat them down at once.
7 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil
The house appointed to thy name
they raze down to the soil.

- 8 And thus they say within their heart,
dispatch them out of hand:
Then burrit they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.
9 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.

- 10 When wilt thou, Lord, once end this
and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they always blaspheme thy name,
and rail on thee so long?
11 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluck it out and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

- 12 O God, thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been:
Yea, thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.
13 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die.
14 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great
of whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat
that in the deserts dwell.
15 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise
from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath madelikewise
deep rivers to be drie.

- 16 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by thee they were begun:
Thou sent to serve us with their shine,
the light, and eke the sun.
17 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer-heats and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.
18 Think on, O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy name.
19 O let no cruel beasts devour
the turtle that is true:
Forget not alwayes in thy power
the poor that much do rue.

- 20 Regard thy covenant and behold
thy foes possesse the land:
All sad and dark, forworn and old
our realm as now doth stand.
21 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needy aye
give praise unto thy name.
22 Rise, Lord, let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.
23 The voyce forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption high Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confite

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

UNto thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee!
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wonderous works will we.
2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak and all therein
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on high.
4 I said unto them, set not up your raised horns on high:
And see that you do with fl. f neck
not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wildernesse,
promotion doth proceed.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
another in the thone.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therein
himself doth pour abroad.
8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.
10 In sunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Iudea. Psal. lxxvj. J. H.

To all that now in Iurie dwell
the Lord is clearly known:
His name is great in Israell,
a people of his own.
2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield:
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battle on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are spoil'd through and they are fallen on sleep: (thee,
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.
6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove:
As halfe on sleep their chariots stood,
no horsmen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadfull, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard 8 When thou dost make thy judgements
from heaven through the ground:
Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand
in judgement for to speak,
To save th' affliccted of the land,
one earth that are fullweak.
10 The fury that in man doth reign
shalt turn unto thy praise:
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats alwayes.

11 Make vows and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be:
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both life and might
from princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Voce mea. Psal. lxxvij. J. H.

I With my voyce to God do crie,
with heart and hearty chear:
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I sought to God,
by night no rest I took:
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:
I speake, but could not make an end,
my breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwayes from rest,
that I alwayes awake:
With fear I am so sore opprest,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I caſt,
and oft did think upon
The times and ages that are past
full many yeers agone.

6 By night my songs I call to mind,
once made thy praiseto show:
And with my heart much talk I find,
my spirits do search to know:

7 Will God, said I, at once for all caſt off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us?

8 What? is his goodnesse clean decaid
for ever and a day?
Or is his promise now deſaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold?
10 At least I said, My weakness is the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

- 11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record.
12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did devise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.
13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright,
and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might
of thee O Lord our God?
14 Thou art a God that doest forth show
thy wonders every hour:
And so dost make the people know
thy virtue and thy power.
15 And thine own folk thou doest defend with strength and stretched arm:
The sons of Jacob that descend,
and Josephs seed from harm.
16 The waters Lord perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.
17 The clouds that were both thick and black
did rain full plentuously:
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did fly.
18 Thy thunder in the air was heard,
thy lightnings from above
With flashes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.
19 Thy wayes within thesea doth lie,
thy paths in waters deep:
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep.
20 Thou leddest thy folk upon the land
as sheep on every side:
Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guid.

Attende populi. Psal. lxxvij. J. H.

- A TTEND my people to my law,
and to my words encline:
2 My mouth shall speak strange parables,
and sentences divine.
3 Which we our selves have heard and learn'd
even of our fathers old;
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.
4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race praise,
and all his works of wonder.
5 To Jacob he commandment gave
how Israel should live, Willing our fathers should the same unto their children give.

Psalm lxxviii.

- 6 That they and their posterity
that were not sprung up tho,
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.
7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.

- 8 Not being as their fathers were,
rebelling in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shooting their darts the day of war,
and yet they took the foil?
10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:
11 But put into oblivion
his counsel and his will,
And all his works most magnifick,
which he declared still.

The second part.

- 12 What wonders to our forefathers
did he himself disclose
In Egyptland within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?
13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.
14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentifull as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.
16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both drie and hard,
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.
18 They tempted God within their hearts,
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meat
as served to their lust.
19 Saying with murmuration
in their unfaithfulness,
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?
20 Behold, he strake the stony rock,
and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

- 22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them
in their necessities.
 23 Wherefore he did command the clouds
forthwith they brake in sunder, 24 And rain'd down manna for them to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.
 25 When earthly men with angels food
where fed at their request, 26 He bade the east winde blow away,
and brought in the south-west.
 27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowl as thick as sand,
 28 Which he did cast amid the place
where all their tents did stand.
 29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire
to serve their lusts and wils.
 30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell, 31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israel.
 32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
 33 Their dayes therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and passe away
with terror and with pain.
 34 But everwhen he plagued them,
they sought him by and by.
 35 Remembering that he was their strength,
their help and God most high.
 36 Though in their mouths they did but glose
and flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues and in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

- 37 For why? their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.
 38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
 Yea, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
 39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a winde
That passeth away, and cannot well
return by his own kind.
 40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke!
 41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God eft-soon, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they wold have done.

- 42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of the fierce enemy.
 43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan-held.
 44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
 45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their countrey full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

- 46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the graſhopper.
 47 With hail-stones he destroyd their vines,
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wilde fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.
 48 And yet with hail-stones once again
the Lord their cattle smote,
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunder-bolts full hot.
 49 He cast upon them in his ire
and in his fury strong, Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.
 50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.
 51 He brake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came:
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.
 52 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.
 53 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.
 54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land,
Even to the mount which he had got,
by his strong arm and hand.
 55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.
 56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still,
And would not keep his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
 57 But as their father turned back,
even so they went astray,
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth part.

- 58 And griev'd him with their hill-altars,
with offerings and with fire :
And with their idols vehemently
provok'd him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast:
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsook the tabernacle
of Silo , where he was.
Rightconversant with earthly men ,
even as his dwelling place.
61 Then suffer'd he his might and power
in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.
62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage :
63 Their young men were devour'd with fire ,
maids had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the priests also did perish every one:
And not a widow left alive
their death for to bemoan.
65 And then the Lord began to wake
like one that slept a time,
And like a valiant man of war
refreshed after wine.
66 With emerods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetuall.
67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim ,
he would in no wise choose : 68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda ,
whereas he thought do dwells:
Even the noble mount Sion ,
which he did love so well.
69 Whereas he did his temple build both sumptuously and sure ,
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.
70 Then chose he David him to serve ,
his people for to keep ;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.
71 As he did follow th'ews with young ,
the Lord did him advance ,
To feed his people Israel
and his inheritance .
72 Thus David with a faithfull heart
his flock and charge did feed ,
And prudently with all his power
did govern them indeed.

Dew, venerunt. Psal. lxxix. J. H.

O God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil :
Jerusalem heap is made ,
thy temple they defile .
2 The bones of thy saints most dear
abroad go birds they cast :
The flesh of hem that do thee fear
the beasts devour and waste .

- 3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as water spilt they have :
So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave .
4 Thus are we made a laughing stock
almost the world throughout :
The enemies at us just and mock
which dwell our coasts about .
5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire
against us ever fume ,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire ,
thy folk for to consume ?
6 Upon those people pour the same which did thee never know :
All realms which call not on thy name
consume and overthrow .
7 For they have got the upper hand ,
and Jacobs seed destroy'd :
His habitation and his land
they have left waste and void .
8 Bear not in mind our former faults ,
with speed some pitie show :
And aid us, Lord , in all assaults ,
for we are weak and low .

The second part.

- 9 O God that giv'st all health and grace ,
on us declare the same :
Weigh not our works , our sins deface
for honour of thy name .
10 Why shall the wicked still alway ,
to us as people dumbe ,
In thy reproch rejoice , and say ,
where is their God become ?

Require, O Lord , as thou seest good ,
before our eyes in sight ,
Of all these folk thy servants blood
which they spilt in despight .
11 Receive into thy sight in haste
the clamours , grief , and wrong
Of such as are in prison cast , sustaining irons strong .

- Thy force and strength to celebrate ,
Lord set them out of band
Which unto death are destinat ,
and in their enemies hand .
12 The nations which have been so bold
as thou blaspheme thy name ,
Into their laps with seven-fold
repay again the same .

13 So we thy flock and pasture sheep
will praise thee evermore ,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store .

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxx. J. H.

- T Thou Herd that Israel dost keep ,
give ear and take good heed :
Which leadest Joseph like a sheep ,
and dost him watch and feed .
2 Thou Lord, I say , whose seat is set on cherubims most bright , Shew forth thy self and do not let ,
send down thy beams of light .

- 3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin ,
Manasses eke likewise ,
To shew thy power do thou begin ;
come help us Lord , arise .

4 Dirco

- 4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
 convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightness of thy face,
 and then full safe are we.
- 5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
 how long wilt thou (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell,
 and wilt not hear them pray ?
- 6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep,
 their bread with tears they eat,
And drink the tears that they do weep,
 in measure full and great.
- 7 Thou hast us made a very strife
 to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do love a life,
 they laugh and jest it out.
- 8 O take us Lord unto thy grace,
 convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
 and we full safe shall be.
- 9 From Egypt where it grew not well
 thou brought'lt a vinefull dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
 and thou didst plant it there.
- 10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
 and set her roots full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace
 and fill'd the land at last.
- The second part.
- 11 The hills were covered round about
 with shade that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and stout,
 with branches of the same.
- 12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
 her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that passe thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.
- 13 The boar out of the wood so wilde
 doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
 devour it all about.
- 14 O Lord of hosts return again,
 from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
 this poor vineyard of thine.
- 15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
 whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
 O Lord, do not forget.
- 16 They lop and cut it down apace,
 they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
 we perish in thine ire.
- 17 Let thy right hand be with them now
 whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
 to thee hast made so strong.
- 18 And so when thou hast set us free,
 and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
 but call upon thy name.
- 19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good grace
 convert us unto thee:
Behold us with a pleasant face,
 and then full safe are we.

Deo exultate. Psal. lxxxij. I. H.

- B E light and glad, in God rejoice,
 which is our strength and stay:
Be joyfull and lift up your voice
 to Jacobs God, I say.
- 2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
 some joyfull psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
 on every pleasant string.
- 3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
 with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
 at any solemn feast.
- 4 For this is unto Israel
 a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
 which Jacobs God hath made.
- 5 This clause with Joseph was decreed
 when he from Egypt came,
That as a witnesse all his seed
 should still observe the same,
When God I say had so prepar'd
 to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
 he did not understand.
- 6 I from his shoulders took (faith he)
 the burden clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free
 from burning brick of clay.
- 7 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
 I holp thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall
 in thunder secretly.
- Yea at the waters of discord
 I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
 with muttering thou didst move.
- 8 Hear O my folk, O Israel,
 and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words full well,
 if thou wilt cleave to me.
- The second part.
- 9 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve
 of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise to howe or serve
 a strange or forreign god.
- 10 I am the Lord thy God, and I
 from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
 and I will give it thee.
- 11 And yet my people would not heare
 my voyce when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
 but did me quite forsake.
- 12 Then did I leave them to their will,
 in hardness of their heart:
To walk in their own counsels still,
 themselves they might pervert.
- 13 O that my people would have heard
 the words that I did say:
And eke that Israel would regard
 to walk within my way!
- 14 How soon would I confound their foes
 and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those
 that would them overthrow!

- 15 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him till:
But off his folk the time and age
shall flourish ever still.
16 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:
And make the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills shouldeat.

Deus stetit. Psal. lxxxij. J. H.

- A Mid the pressse with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right
with judges of the land.
2 How long (said he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard?
3 Whereas of due you should defend the fatherlesse and weak,
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.
4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poor men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or leavn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.
6 For lo even now the time is come
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some forgain are sold and bought.
7 I had decreed it in my sight
as godsto take you all:
And children to the most of might
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.
8 Up Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

Deus quid. Psal. lxxxijj. J. H.

- Do not, O God, restrain thy tongue,
in silence do not lay:
Withhold not Lord thy scis so long,
and make no more delay.
2 For why? behold thy foes and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee
hold up their heads on high.
3 Against thy folk they used deceiv,
and craftly they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait
their counsel doth conspire.
4 Come on, say they, let us expell
and pluck these folk away:
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.

- 5 They all conspire within their heart
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ismaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers other mo.
7 Gebal with Ammon and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Ashureke is well appaid
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lots posterite.
9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:
As to Siser, and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.
10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open sight.

The second part.

- 11 Make them now and their Lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:
As Zeba and Zalmana were,
the kings of Midian.
12 Which said, Let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad, Possesse and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.
13 Turn them, O God, with storms as salt
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff, which men do cast,
with windesto flic away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and sume
the mighty forrests spills:
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills:
15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy wind and shower
Lord make them all afraid.
16 Lord bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy name.
17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie
to perish eke withall, 18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reign throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxxijjj. I. H.

- H How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me!
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, Lord, they be!
2 My soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The sparrows find a room to rest
and save themselves from wrong,
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hosts thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house alwayes:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea, happy sure likewise are they,
whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

As they go through the vail of tears,
they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.
7 From strength to strength they walk full fast,
no faintnesse there shall be:
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.

8 O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray:
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.
9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace
regard, and so draw neer:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

10 For why? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay
a thousand dayes beside.
Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickednesse
to settle mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:
And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.
12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest
and happy sure is he,
That is perswaded in his breast
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal lxxxv. J. H.

T Hou hast been mercifull indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land:
Forthou restoredst Jacobs seed
from thraldome out of band.
2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst asswage,
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God our health, do now convert thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angrie cease to be.

5 Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?

7 O Lord on us do thou declare thy goodnessse to our wealth:
Shew forth to us, and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.

8 I will heark what Godfaith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishnesse.

9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glorie in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 A struth from earth shall spring space,
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousnesse shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

12 Yea, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

In dulci domine. Psal. lxxxvi]. I. H.

L Ord bowethine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by:
With grievous pain and grief opprest,
full poor and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my wayes
and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercie, Lord, on me expresse,
defend me eke withall:
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to crie and call.

4 Comfort, O Lord, thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd:
For unto thee, Lord, I extoll
and lift my soul and mind.

5 For thou art gond and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear:
Mark well the words that I dosay,
and all my prayers hear.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain:
For why? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods, O Lord, is none
with thee to be compar'd :
And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

- 9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall
and glorifie thy name.
10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own :
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.
11 O teach me (Lord) thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed :
O joyn my heart to thee so nigh
that I thy name may dread.
12 To thee my God will I give praise
with all my heart O Lord :
And glorifie thy name alwayes
forever through the world.
13 For why? thy mercies shew'd to me
is great and doth excell :
Thou seist my soul at libertie
out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might :
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.
15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath :
Thy goodness is full great and eke
thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turn to me, and mercie grant,
thy strength to me apply :
O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.
17 On me some signe offavour show,
that all my foes may see
And be ashamed, because (Lord) thou dost help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Psal. lxxxvij. J. H.

THAT citie shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loveth the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide :
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacob's tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad :
Great things, I say, are said of thee
thou citie of our God.
4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in minde the same :
And Babylon shall eke apply
and learn to know my name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Etiope likewise,
A people old, full long ago
were born and there did rise.
6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath sounded fast the same.

6 In their records to them it shall through Godsdevice appear,
Of Sion that the chief of all
had his beginning there.

7 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plentie be :
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compast all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. lxxxvij. J. H.

IORD God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me :
I call and cry throughout the day
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high :
Enclinethine ear, O Lord, attend
and hearken to my crie.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell :
My life and breath almost doth yeeld,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteemed as one of them
that in the pit do fall :
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain :
It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.
As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot :
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

6 Yea, like to one shut up full sure within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

7 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie :
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and tric.

8 Thou puttest my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore :
I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

9 My sight doth fail through grief and wo,
I call to thee, O God :
Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

10 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wonderous works of fame ?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same ?

11 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preached in the grave ?
Or shall with them that are destroyd
thy truth her honour have ?

12 Shall they that lie in dark full low
of all thy wonders wot ?
Or there shall they thy justice know where all things are forgot ?

13 But I, O Lord, to thee alwayes
do crie and call apace :
My prayer eke ere it be day
shall come before thy face.

- 14 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul,
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?
15 I am afflict, as dying still
from youth this many a yeer:
The terrors which do vex me ill
with troubled minde I bear.
16 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrourseke do not asswage,
but me oppresse withall.
17 All day they compasse me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.
18 Thou settest far from me my friends
and loves everyone:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias. Psal. lxxxix. J. H.

- 1 O sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.
2 For I have said, that mercie shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.
3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My servant David to persuade,
I swore and did protest:
4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still uphold thy throne alway
from age to age to last.
5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy saints within thy church on earth
thy faith and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equal then
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?
7 God in assembly of the saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about interroure to be had.
8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world
what one is like to thee?
On every side, most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.
9 The raging sea by thine advice thou rulest at thy will:
And when the waves thereof arise,
thou makst them calm and still,
10 And Egypt, Lord, thou hast subdu'd,
and thou hast it deu'ry'd:
Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

- 11 The heavens are thine and still have been,
likewise the earth and land:
The world and all that is therein
shoufounded with thy hand.

- 12 Both north and south, with east and west
thy self didst make and frame:
Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy name.
13 Thine arm is strong and full of power,
all might therein doth lie:
The strength of thy right hand each hour
thou liftest up on high.
14 In righteousness and equitie
thou hast thy seat and place:
Mercie and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.
15 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power, O God:
For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad.
16 For in thy name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoice:
And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.
17 For why? their glory, strength, and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:
Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.
18 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:
The holy One of Israel
he is our guid and King.
19 Sometimes they will unto thy saints
in visions thou didst shew:
And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy minde to make them know:
A man of might I have ered
your King and guid to be:
And set him up whom I elect
among the folk to me.
The third part.
20 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:
And with mine holy oil anoint
him king of all the rout.
21 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:
And with mine arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.
22 The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall him not devour:
Ne yet the sons of wickednesse
on him shall have no power:
23 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in sight:
And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.
24 My truth and mercie eke withall
shall still upon him lie:
And in my name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.
25 His kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land:
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.
26 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say,
My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

27 As my first-born I will him take
of all on earth that springs:
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.

28 My mercie shall be with him still,
as I myself have told:
My faithfull covenant to fulfill
my mercie I will hold.
29 And eke his seed I will sustayn
for ever strong and sure:
So that his seed shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

30 If that his sons forsake my law,
and so begin to swerve:
And of my judgements have none awe,
nor will not them observe:
31 Or if they do not use aright
my statutes to them made,
And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade:

32 Then with the rod will I begin their doingsto amend:
And so with scourging for their sin,
if that they do offend.

33 My mercie yet and my goodnessse
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle him with craftinessse,
and so my truth forgo.

34 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:
No word the which my lips have told
shall alter or be broke.
35 Once sware I by my holinessse,
and that perform will I:
With David I shall keap promise,
to him I will not lie.

36 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might:
As doth the sun, it shall remain
for ever in my sight.

37 And as the moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast
A faithfull witnessesse from on high,
so shall his kingdoine last.

38 But now, O Lord, thou dost reject,
and now thou changest cheer:
Yea, thou art wrth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.

39 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord, thou hast quite undone:
And down upon the ground also hast cast his royll crown.

The fifth part.

40 Thou pluckst his hedges up with might,
his wallsthou dost confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and break'st them to the ground.
41 That he is sore destroyed and torn
of comers by throu-hout:
And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.

42 Thou their right hand hast listed up
that him so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him devours
to thou hast made to joy.

43 His swords edge thou dost take away,
that should his foes withstand:
To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.

44 His glory thou dost also waste,
his throne, his joy, his mirth,
By thee is overthrown, and cast
full low upon the earth.

45 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty dayes:
And rais'd of him an ill report
with shame and great dispraise.

46 How long away from me, O Lord,
forever wilt thou turn?
And shall thine anger still alway
as fire consume and burn?

47 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sons of men
as things in vain to waste?

48 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?
Or from the hand of hell his soul
shall he deliver free?

49 Where is, O Lord, thine own goodnessse
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightnessse
to David thou hast sworn?

50 The great rebukes to minde I call
that on thy servants lie:
The railings of the people all
born in my breast have I, 51 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blasphemed have thy name:
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.

52 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye:
Through skie and earth, and all the coasts,
Amen, amen, I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. xc. J. H.

THOU Lord hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest
In all times past, yea so long since as cannot be exprest.

2Ere there was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad:
From age to age and alwayes still forever thou art God.

3Thou grindest man through grief and pain
to dust or clay, and then,
And then thou saist again, return
again ye sons of men.

4The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.

5So soon as thou doest scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grasse
whose beauty soon doth fade.

6Which in the morning shines fullbright,
but fadeth by and by:
And is cut down ear it be night,
all withered, dead, and die.

- 7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decaid:
And of thy fervent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
- 8 The wicked works that we have wrought
thou seest before thine eye:
Our privie faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.
- 9 For through thy wrath our dayes do waste,
thereof doth nought remain:
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not call'd again.
- 10 Our time is threescore yeers and ten
that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then
we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

- Yet of this time the strength and chief
the which we count upon,
Is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone.
- 11 Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath? (there,
Or in his heart who doth thee fear
according to thy wrath?)
- 12 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try
how long our dayes remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
- 13 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
- 14 Refresh us with thy mercies soon,
and then our joy shall be
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoice will we.
- 15 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the yeers wherein full sore affliction we have had.
- 16 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear
thy glorie and thy might.
- 17 Lord let thy grace and glorie stand
on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Qui habitat. Psal. xcij. J. H.

- HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace
at rest shall keep him well.
- 2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say,
My God is he, in him will
my whole affiance stay.
- 3 He shall defend thee from the snare
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid.
- 4 And with his wings shall cover thee
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

- 5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terrors of the night.
- 6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.
- 7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand
a thousand dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
- 8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard,
That even like to their deserts
the wicked have reward.
- 9 For why? O Lord, I onely lust
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the Highest I put my trust:
my sure defence is he.
- 10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall not merr:
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.
- 11 For why? unto his angels all
with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy wayes they shall preserve and prosper thee.
- 12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon,
So that thy foot shall never chance
tosprun at any stome.
- 13 Upon the lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long:
And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons stout and strong.
- 14 For he that trusteth unto me
I will dispatch him quite:
And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright.
- 15 When he for help on me doth cry
an answer I will give:
And from his griefe take him will I
in glorie for to live.
- 16 With length of years and dayes of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodnessse of my saving health
I will declare to him.
- Bonum est. Psal. xcij. J. H.*
- IT is a thing both good and meet
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy name, O thou most High,
to sing with one accord:
- 2 To shew the kindnessse of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.
- 3 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on lute and harp so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent
of instruments most meet.
- 4 For thou hast made me to rejoice
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy works to see.

- 5 O Lord how glorious and how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can tric them out.
6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this gear to passe to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.
7 When so the wicked at their will
as grasse do spring full fast,
They when they flourish in their ill
for ever shall be waste.
8 But thou art mightie, Lord most high,
yea thou dost reign therefore
In every time eternally
both now and evermore.
9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold thy foes, I say,
How all that work iniquitie
shall perish and decay.
10 But thou, like as an unicorn,
shalt lift mine horn on high:
With fresh and new prepared oil
thine ointed king am I: 11 And of my foes before mine eyes shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.
12 The just shall flourish up on high
as date-trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.
13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.
14 And in their age much fruit shall bring both fat and well beseen:
And pleasantly both bud and spring
with boughs and branches green.
15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:
He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcij. J. H.

The Lord as king a loft doth reign,
with glorie goodly dight:
And he to shew his strength and main,
hath gird himself with might.
The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shaped it so sure,
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

- 2 Ere that the world was made or wrought,
thy seat was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought,
thou haft been evermore.
3 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise:
The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.
4 Yea, though the storms arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

5 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal. xcijj. J. H.

O Lord thou dost revenge all wrong,
that office longs to thee:

Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guid:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting up their voice?

How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoice?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out and proudly prate their fill?
Shall they rejoice that be so stout,
whose works are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage
they spoil and vex full sore:

Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortlesse,
and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherlesse,
and none doth put them by,

7 And when they take these things in hand,
this talk they have of thee,
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush no, he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise and people rude,
some knowledge now discern:
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the ear of man
he needs of right must hear:
He made the eye, all things must than before his sight appear.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct
and make them understand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect?
how can ye escape his hand?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man,
his heart he seeth full plain:
The Lord (I say) man's thoughts doth scan
and findeth them but vain.

12 But Lord, that man is happy sure whom thou dost keep in awe,
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be supprest,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take:
His heritage whom he did choose
he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that judgement be decreed
to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.

- 16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?
- 17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell:
My soul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.
- 18 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.

- 19 When with myself I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my minde.
- 20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self and draw with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence in stead of law
much mischiefe do commit?
- 21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife
to shed the guiltlesse blood.
- 22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence, or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.
- 23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all
themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

- O Come let us lift up our voyce
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.
- 2 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalms unto his grace
let us be glad alwayes.
- 3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God,
A king above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.
- 4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.
- 5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.
- 6 Come let us bowe and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord
the which hath made us all.
- 7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
his sheep, and he our guid.
- 8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a yees provoke me in desart.

- 9 Whereas your father tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.
- 10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve,
and I to them did say,
They erre in heart, and not beleeve,
they have not known my way.

- 11 Wherefore I sware when that my wrath
was kindled in my breast,
That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcviij. J. H.

- Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.
- 2 Yea, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.
- 3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.
- 4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right
above all gods, I say.

- 5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.
- 6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

- 7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world.
All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.
- 8 Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glory of his name:
And eke unto his courts do go
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

- 9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.
- 10 Tell all the world, be not afraid,
the Lord doth reign above:
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move.
- And that it is the Lord alone
that rules with princely might,
To judge the nations every one
with equitie and right.
- 11 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejoice:
The sea with all that is therein
shall shout and make a noise.
- 12 The field shall joy, and every thing
that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth,

3 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcviij. I. H.

THe Lord doth reign, whereat the earth
may joy with pleasant voyce:
And eke the isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoice.
2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swell,
and round about him bear:
Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face
Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place
4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before the rulers might,
which guideth all the world.
6 The heavens eke declare and show
his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see and know
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:
And eke to those that glorie much dumb pictures to maintain.
For all the idols of the world,
which they as Gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord,
and down to him shall fall.

8 With joy shall Sion hear this thing,
and Judah shall rejoice:
For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.
9 That thou O Lord art set on high
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

10 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.
11 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladnesse, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.

12 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoice,
his holinesse proclaim:
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindefull of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcviij. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song:
• For he hath wrought throughout the world
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour,
And get himself the victory
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his justice show
in all the heathens sight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel
in mind he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodnessse of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoice
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with psalms:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King
with trumpets and with shalms.

7 Yea, let the sea with all therein
for joy doth roar and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.
8 And let the floods rejoice their fills,
and clap their hands apaee:
And eke the mountains and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and try
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mighty
with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcix. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full sore:
Yea, he on cherubins doth sit,
though all the world do roar.
2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell
is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name,
for it is searsfull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.
4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly rulest everything
in Jacob, through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him do:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.
6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour till
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.
8 O Lord our God, thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them again:
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

Iubilate Deo. Psal. c. J. H.

A ll people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerfull voyce:
2 Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell;
come ye before him and rejoice.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 Enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and blesse his name alwayes;
for it is seemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for eversure:
His truth at all times firmly stoud,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

In God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth,
2 Serve him, and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.
3 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep,
Not we ourselves: for we are his own flock and pasture-sheep.

4 Go into his gates alwayes,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.
5 For why? the goodnessse of the Lord
for evermore doth raign:
From age to age throughout the world
his truthe doth still remain.

Misericordiam. Psal. cj. N.

I Mercy will and judgement sing,
O Lord God, unto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way
untill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk
in purenesse of my sprite:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing
will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the foward heart,
none evil will I see.
5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofste heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within
the land that faulst be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guifull person have within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods cities cut
the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. cij. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my crye come unto thee:
2 Intime of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Encline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my dayes consume and fall.

4 And as an harth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead,
And withers like the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As pelican in wildernesse,
such case now am I in.

And as an owl in desert is,
lo I am such an one:
7 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.
8 Lo, daily in reprochfull wise
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drink with tears
that from mine eyes have still'd.
10 Because of thy displeasure, Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.

11 The dayes wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grasse
that soon away doth fade.
12 But thou, O Lord, forever dost
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercie, now the time
foreset is come to end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.

15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mightie God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

17 To prayer of the desolate
when he himself shall bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.

18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
the Lord's renown shall spread.

19 For he from his high sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.

20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the wofull crie:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to die.

21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lord's most holy name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same:
22 Then when the people of the land
and kingdoms with accord Shall be assembled for to do their servise to the Lord.

The third part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he did cut my dayes,
thus I therefore did say, 24 My God, in midst of all my dayes
now take me not away:
Thy yeers endure eternally,
from age to age for aye.

25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made.
26 Yea, they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old
even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change,
and changed shall they be:
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy yeers do never flee.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. ciiij. T.S.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy selfunkind:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain,
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercie and compassion both
he did extend to thee.

5 That fill'd with goodnessse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the eagle casts her bill,
wherby her age renew'th.

6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be opprest:
So that their suffrings and their wrongs
are turned to the best.

7 His wayes and his commandements
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

8 The Lord is kind and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and rediest to forgive.

9 He chides not us continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memorie,
for all our sinfull life.

10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth us no reward.

11 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above:
So is his goodnesse much more large
to them that do him love.

12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

13 And look what pitie parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pitie beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

14 The Lord that made us knows our shape,
our mould and fashion just:
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

15 And how the time of mortall men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flowr right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

16 Whose glosse and beauty stormy windes
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children do receive his righteousnesse at hand.

18 I mean, which kepp his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stool of the Lord:
And by his power imperial
he governs all the world.

20 Ye angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and to his will immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hosts and ministers,
cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.

22 Yes,

22 Yes, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy name:
My heart, my minde, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic anima. Psal. ciiij. W.K.

MY soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his name:
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear?
So passing in glorie,
that great is thy fame.
Honour and majesty
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light, as a robe,
thou hast thee beclad, Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see:
The heavens in such sort thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear:
And there with much swiftnesse
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of windes in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.

6 The deep a fair covering for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee:
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointest,
remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set
how far they shall run:
So that in their rage
nor that passe they can:

For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wilde asles
their thirst oft-times flakes,
And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountainto moist,
the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works
is wholly replete.

14 So as the bruit cattel
he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth provider hem,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea, bread, wine, and oil,
he made for mans sake,
His face to refresh
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did makes Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long:

17 In these may birds build and make there their nests:
In fir-trees the storks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are succours
for wilde goats to rest:
And eke the rocks stony for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is set
her seasons to run:
The dayes from the nights
thereby to discern.
And by the descending
also of the sun,
The cold from heat alway thereby we do learn.

20 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all the beasts of the wood.

21 The lions range roaring their prey to devour:
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.

22 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens
then are they full faire.

23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works sound!
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.

25 So is the great sea
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.
26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at road:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve:
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.
28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give:
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodnessse
the dry earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoice.
32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoak at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
sing will I always:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.
34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please:
I will rejoice in him,
to him will I crie.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
And eke the perverse
them root out with shame;

But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faulthill,
praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cv. N.

G I ve praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his name:
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto him praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought always.

3 In honour of his holy name
rejoice with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoice
of them that seek the Lord.
4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternall might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works which he hath done
keep still in mindfull heart:
Ne let the judgements of his mouth
out of your minde depart.
6 Yet hat of faulthill Abraham
his servant are the seed:
Ye heise & the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God,
And his most rightfull judgements are through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembred evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago,
And faulthill oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.
10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.
12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear:
Yea, very small and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walkt from land to land
without a sure abode:
And while from sundrie kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
14 And wrong at no oppressours hands
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroid the store:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:

The third part.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold to live a slave in wo:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also.
18 Until the time came when his cause
was known apparently.
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultlesstruth did trie.

19 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:
20 The ruler of the people then did freely let him passe.
21 And over all his house he made him Lord to beat the sway:
And of his substance made him have the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land:
And wisdomsore his ancient men
might cause to understand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with hate
his people did entreat:
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signes
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darknesse he sent and made it dark
in stead of brighter day:
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.
29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay:
30 Their land brought frogs even in the place where their king Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain:
And fierie flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then caterpillars did,
and grasshoppers abound:
35 Which are the grasse in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly did he smite:
Yea, the beginning and first-fruit
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egyptland to passe:
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the fear of them
was fallen upon their heart.
39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked and he caused quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he represt.
41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindefull was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy
Out of the cruell land where they had liv'd in great annoy.

44 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitsfull lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cvj. N.

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye:
2 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that judgement keep
and justly do alway:
With favour of the people ,Lord,
remember me I pray.

4 And with thy saving health ,O Lord,
vouchsafe to visit me:
5 That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see:
And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull minde possesse:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one:
We have committed wickednesse,
and lewdly we have done.

7 The wonders great which thou , O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land,
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.

Nor they thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankfull minde:
But at the sea, yea the Red sea,
rebelled most unkinde.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his name :
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The Red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dri'd:
And as in wildernes , so through the deep he did them guid.
10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despitefull soe,
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelmd,
not one was left alive:

12 Then they believ'd his word , and praise
in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot :
And for his counsel and his will they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wildernes
with sond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes desire hesuffered them to have:
But wasting leannessse there withall
into their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch :
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envie much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour:
And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was
the hot consuming fire:
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in hisire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol calf did frame:
And therethe molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likenesse of a calf
which feedeth on the grasse :
Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour
unkindly they forgot ;
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done :
And by the Red sea dreadfull things performed long agone.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkinde,
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his minde:

I had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break,
To turn his wrath , left he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.

24 They did despise the pleasant land
that he behight to give :
Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit beleve.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd,
Nor to the voyce of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.

26 Therefore against them listed he his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wildernes
ere they should see the land.

27 And to destroy their seed among the nations with his rod :
And through the countreys of the world
to scatter them abroad.

28 To Baal Peor then they did adjoyn themselves also :
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.

29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his sore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.

30 But Phinehas stood up with zeal
the sinners vyle to slay :
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

31 It was impugned unto him
for righteousness that day :
And from thenceforth so counted is
from race to race , I say.

32 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angrie make :
Yea, so far forth that Moses was then punishit for their sake :

33 Because they vext his spirit so sore,
that in impatient heat
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his servour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho :

35 But were among the heathen mixt,
and learn'd their works also.

36 And did their idols serve , which were their ruin and decay :

37 To fiendstheir sons and daughters they did offer up and slay.

38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltlesse blood they spilt :
Yea , their own sons and daughters blood
without allcause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then offered with wicked hand :
And so with bloud of innocents
defiled was the land.

39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
awhoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lord's wrath kindled sore:
And even his own inheritance
therefore he did abhor.
41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey,
And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hateful enemies
oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subjects to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:
44 Yet when he saw them in distress,
he hearkened to their cry.
45 He call'd to mind his covenant
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God,
save us, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.

That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy name:
That we may glory in thy praise
and sounding of thy fame.
48 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cvij. W. K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercy hath no end
all mortall men may see.
3 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his name:
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:
From east to west, from north to south
his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandred in the wilderness
and strayed from the way:
And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:
That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke their souls appaid.

6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they praid.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guid:
That they might to a city go,
and there also abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his goodness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustain'd,
whom thirst had made to faint:
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquaint 10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deep,
where they on death do wait:
Fast bound to taste such troublous stormes,
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lord's own words
they sought so to rebell:
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then feldown with grief:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they praid.
14 For he from darknes out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade:
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before didlade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
and brake them with strong hand:
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel,
and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.
18 Their souls so much did loath all meat,
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly triide.

19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they praid.
20 For then he sent to them his word,
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

- 32 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also fear:
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.
- 33 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend,
Their merchandise through fearfull floods
to compasse and to end:
- 34 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep, the same
most marvellous they see.
- 35 For at his word the stormie winde
ariseth in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so,
as nought can them asswage.
- 36 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth untill,
their souls consume with pain.
- 37 And like a drunkard, to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had offence no feel.
- 38 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they praid.
- 39 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdy storms to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.
- 40 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave:
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.
- The fourth part.
- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
- 32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extoll his name:
And where the elders do convent,
there let them do the same.
- 33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn:
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
- 34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make:
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
- 35 Again the wildernes full rude
he maketh fruit to bear:
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.
- 36 Wherein such hungry souls are set
as he doth freely choose:
That they a city may them build
to dwell in for their use.
- 37 That they may sow their pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant,
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seem to want.

- 38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also the bruit beasts make
by numbers great to grow.
- 39 But when the faithfull are low brought
by the oppressours stour,
And minish do through many plagues
that compasse them about:
- 40 Then doth he princes bring to shame
which did them sore oppresse,
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildernes.
- 41 But yet the poor he raiseth up
out of his troubles deep:
And oft times doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheep.
- 42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoice:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
- 43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindnesse of the Lord.
- Paratum cor. Psal. cvij. J. H.
- God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving praise also.
- 2 Awake my violl and my harp
sweet melody to makes
And in the morning I my self right early will awake.
- 3 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
- 4 Because thy mercy Lord is great
above the heavens high:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the losty skie.
- 5 Above the starrie heavens high
exalt thy self, O God:
And, Lord, display upon the earth
thy glorie all abroad.
- 6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
- 7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefore my joyes abounds:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.
- 8 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be:
My head strength, Ephraim; and law
shall Judah give for me.
- 9 Moab my washpot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.
- 10 Who shall into the city strong
be guid to conduct me?
Or how, by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?

81 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst us forsaken quite?
And thou, O Lord, which with our hosts
didst not go forth to fight?

82 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assail:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

83 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown,
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea, he shall tread them down.

Dens laudem tuam. Psal. cix. N.

1 In speechlesse silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue alwayes;
O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.

2 The wicked and the guifull mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

3 They did beset me roundabout
with words of hatefull spight:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray:

5 My good with ill, my friendlinesse
with hate they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.

7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes
be turned into sin.

8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.

10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store:
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toyl before.

12 Let there be none to pitie him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherlesse
will let their mercie fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posteritie
for ever be destroyed:
Their name out-blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.

14 Let not his fathers wickednesse
from Gods remembrance fall:
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye:
That from the earth their memorie
be maye cut clean away.

16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so:
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.

18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall Into his bowels, and like oil
into his bones besall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for ay:
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.

20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe:
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
deal thou, I say, with me
After thy name, deliver me;
for good thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of great distresse
I needy am and poor:
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Even so do I depart away
as doth declining shades
And as the grashopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needfull food
enseebled are my knees:
And all her fatnesse hath my flesh
enforced beento leese.

25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be:
And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be:
According to thy mercie, Lord,
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mightie hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt blesse with loving voyce:
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoice.

29 Let them be cloathed all with shame
that enemies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord:
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. cx. N.

- THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand
Till I have made thy foes a stool, whereon thy feet shall stand.
- 2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the scepter of thy might :
Amid thy mortall foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.
- 3 And in the day on which they reign
and power they shall see :
Then hereby free will offerings shall
the people offer thee.
Yea, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all:
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.
- 4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say :
By the order of Melchisedech
thou art a priest for ay.
- 5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathfull day.
- 6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead :
And over divers countries shall
in sunder smite the head.
- 7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his roiall head that day.
- Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxij. N.*
- With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.
- 2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound
As do him love and trust.
- 3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteousesse
It doth endure for ever.
- 4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember shold,
His mercie faileth never.
- 5 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid :
For thisthey shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
- 6 For he did not disdain
His worksto shew them plain ,
By lightning and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand ,
where they beheld his wonders.
- 7 Of all his works ensueth
Both judgement, right, and truth, Whereto his statutes tend :
- 8 They are decreed sure
Forever to endure,
Which equity doth end.

Redemption he gave
His people for to save :
9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But alwayes to prevail:
His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full fain
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey :
Such as his laws do keep Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for ay.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxij. W. R.

- THe man is blest that God doth fear,
And that his law doth love indeed :
- 2 His seed on earth God will uprear,
And blesse such as from him proceed,
- 3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.
- 4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darknesse light.
Compassion is in his eyes ,
And mercie alwayes in his sight.
- 5 Yea pitie moveth such to lend ,
He doth by judgement things expend.

- 6 And surely such shall never fail ,
For in remembrance had is he:
- 7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
- 8 His heart is firm, his fear is past,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

- 9 He did well for the poor provide ,
His righteousness shall still remain :
And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked in and disdain.
- 10 Yea, gnash his teeth the eat shall he ,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. cxij. W. K.

- YE children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his name with one accord :
- 2 Yea blessed be alwayes his name,
- 3 Who from the rising of the sun ,
Till it return were it begun ,
Is to be praised with great fame.
- 4 The Lord all people doth surmount,
As for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.
- 5 With God the Lord who may compare,
Whose dwellings in the heavens are ?
Of such great power and force is he.
- 6 He doth abase himself, we know ,
Things to behold both here below,
and also in heaven above.
- 7 The needy out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His only mercy did him move.
- 8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great dignitie,
That rule his people with great fame.
- 9 The barren he doth make to bear ,
And with great joy her fruit to rear :
Therefore praise ye his holy name.

In exitu Israel. Psal. cxiiij. W. W.

When Israel by Gods addresse
from Pharaohs land was bent :
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went :

2 In Juda God his glory shew'd,
his holiness most bright:
So did the Israelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.

3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did flee:
The roaring streams of Jordans flood recoiled backwardly.

4 As rams afraid, the mountains skipt,
their strength did them forsake:
And as the silly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and shake.

5 Wharil'd thee sea, as all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flee?
Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran'ye backwardly?

6 Why shook ye hills as rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops, astrembling lambs,
for fear quiver and quake?

7 O earth, confess thy sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God
scar ye both sea and land.

8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks
doth cause main floods appear:
And from the stony flint doth cause
gush out the fountains clear.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. cxv. N.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praise,
Both for thy mercy and thy truth
that are in thee always.

2 Why shall the heathen scorners say,
where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols silver are and gold,
works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not speak;
and eyes, and do not see:

6 And they have ears join'd to their heads,
and do not hear at all:
And noses eke they formed have,
and do not smell withall;

7 And hands they have, and handle not;
and feet, and do not go:
A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.

8 Those that make them are like to them,
and those whose trust they be:

9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

10 O Aaron house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:

11 Trust ye the Lord that feareth the Lord,
their help and shield is he.

12 The Lord hath minded full been of us,
and will us blesse also:
On Israel and on Aaron house
his blessings he will show.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will blesse them all:
Even he will blesse them every one,
the great and eke the small.

14 To you (Isay) the loving Lord,
will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord I say:
Which both the heaven and the earth
hath made and set in stay.

16 The heavens, ye the heaven high belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the sons of men
he gave of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown:
Nor any that into the place
of silence do go down.

18 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
Praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. cxvj. N.

I Love the Lord, because my voice
and prayer heard hath he:

2 When in my dayes I call'd on him,
he bowed his ear to me.

3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about beset me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God my Lord
then did I call, and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and just he is also:
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserve
all those that simple be:
I was in wofull misery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my soul, sith thou art safe,
return unto thy rest:
For largely, lo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:
My moistned eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore:

10 I did believe, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distresse and fear,
that all men liars be:

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of saving health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords name I will call
when I my prayer make.

84 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him behight:
Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples sight.
85 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth aye esteem
The death of all his holy ones,
what ever mendodeem.

86 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my selfconfesse,
Son of thine handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distresse.
87 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:
And I will call upon the name
of God the Lord alwayes.

88 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him behight, Yea even at this present time
in all his peoples sight.
89 Yea in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee
O thou Jerusalem, I say,
wherefore the Lord praiseth eye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxvij. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord alwayes:
And all ye people every where
set forth his noble praise.
2 For great his kindnessse is to us,
his truth endures for aye:
Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,
praiseth eye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. cxvij. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.
2 Let Israel confess and say,
his mercy dures for aye:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercy dures for aye.
4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confess and say,
The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.
5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cry'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire upon mine enemie.

8 Better is to trust in God
then in mans mortalised:
9 Orio put confidence in kings
or princes in cur need.
10 All nations have enclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in, I say:
But in the Lords most mighty name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like bees,
but yet in the Lords name
I quench their thorns that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish'd all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed
a Saviour molitrong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to passe great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty thingsto passe:
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.
18 The Lord himself hath chastened
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them
the Lords praise to expresse.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut,
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me,
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This wasthe mighty work of God,
this wasthe Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyesthat noble act.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed
which God himself hath wrought:
Let us be glad and joy therein
in heart, in minde, in thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us
we wish with one accord:

26 Blessed is he that comest o us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
bind ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

- 38 Thou art my God, I will confess,
and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.
39 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. cxix. W.W.

A L E P H.

- Blessed are they that perfectare,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never start.
2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.
3 Doubtless such men go not astray
nor do no wicked thing,
Which stedsafly walk in his way
without any wand'ring.
4 It is thy will and commandment,
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.
5 O would to God it might thee please
my wayes so to addresse,
That I might both in heart and voyce
thy laws keep and confess!
6 So should no shame my life attaint,
whil'st I thus set mine eyes,
And bend my minde alwayes to muse
on thy sacred degrees.
7 Then will I praise with upright heart,
and magnifie thy name,
When I shall learn thy judgements just,
and likewise prove the same.
8 And wholly will I give myself
to keep thy laws most right:
Forsake me not for ever, Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

B E T H. The second part.

- 9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend:
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.
12 We magnifie thy name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame
O Lord teach me therefore.
13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach
and publish day and night
The judgements all which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes please me no lesse indeed
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.

- 15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark, so will I aim thy wayes how I may walk.
16 My onely joy shall be so fixt,
and on thy laws so set:
That nothing can me so far blinde,
that I thy words forget.

G I M E L. The third part.

- 17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.
18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.
19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose
my footsteps for to clear.
20 My soul is ravish't with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgement high,
and what may please thee best.
21 The proud men and malicious
thou hast destroy'd each one:
And cursed are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.
22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire.
23 The princes great in counsell sat,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

D A L E T H. The fourth part.

- 25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
26 My wayes when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now eft-soon, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
27 Teach me once throughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore:
Thy workes then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
28 My soul I feel so sore opprest,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste Lord to send relief.
29 From lying and deceitfull lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.
30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found:
I set thy judgements me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then, O Lord, I forc'd my self thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke
nor check in any case.
32 Then will I run with joyfull chear
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E. The fifth part.

33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end
my heart will I encline.
34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With h'art and minde and all my might
I will it keep, I say.
35 In the right pathes of thy precepts
guid me, Lord, I requir:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
36 Encline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice
Lord shield me with thy grace.
37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power
to walk thy wayes aright.
38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
39 Reproach and shaine which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expell:
For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.
40 Behold, my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep for ay:
Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

V A V. The sixth part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord:
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
42 So shall I stop the flandrous mouthes
of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trust.
43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whil'st that breath within my breast
doth naturall life preserue:
Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.
45 So walk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread:
Because I sought how far to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame:
Even before kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.
47 I will rejoice then to obey
thy worthy hefts and will:

Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.
48 My hands I will lift to thy laws
which I have dearly sought:
And practise thy commandements
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember:
For thine have I put my trust
and confidence for ever.
50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail:
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.
51 The proud and such as God contemna
will make of me a scorn:
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn.
52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy great works
shewed to our fathers old:
Whereby I felt the joys surmount
my griefan hundred fold.
53 But yet alas for fear I quake,
seeing how wicked men Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgements who knows when?
54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts gan me assault.
55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep:
As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay,
I have decreed and promised
thy laws to keep alway.
58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord grant me of thy grace.
59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart:
Whiche to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are:
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.
61 The cruell bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so high:
That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.
63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their hearts
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

- 64 Thy mercies, Lord, most plenteously
do all the world fulfil:
O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.
T E T H. The ninth part.
- 65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt:
For of thy grace in sundry sorts
have I thy servant felt.
- 66 Teach me to judge always aright,
and give me knowledge sure:
For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.
- 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
I err'd and went astray:
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
- 68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giv'st most liberally:
Thy ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.
- 69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will.
- 70 Their hearts are swoln with worldly
as greases so are they fat: (wealth,
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
- 71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws thy rod did me direct.
- 72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold.
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.
- I O D.* The tenth part.
- 73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy laws in use:
- 74 So they that fear thee shall rejoice
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy word
to put my trust in thee.
- 75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd,
I know the cause is just:
So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
- 76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy servant art,
so from all ill me shend:
- 77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give.
- 78 Confound the proud whose false pretence
is me for to destroy:
But as for me, thy helst to know
I will my self employ.
- 79 Who so with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
- 80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:

- That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.
- C A P H.* The eleventh part.
- 81 My soul doth faint and ceaseth not thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust
my hearts desire to have.
- 82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say,
Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord?
why dost thou thus delay?
- 83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dride:
Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments slide.
- 84 Alas how long shall I yet live
before I see the hour,
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?
- 85 Presumptuous men have digged pits,
thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrarie against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.
- 86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causesse they me grieve:
To the therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me relieve.
- 87 Almost they had me cleandestroyd,
and brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
- 88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.
- L A M E D.* The twelfth part.
- 89 In heaven Lord, where thou dost dwell,
thy word is stablisht sure:
And shall for all eternity
fast graven there endure.
- 90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witnessse:
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so sure
as no tongue can expresse.
- 91 Even to this day we may well see how al things persevere
According to thine ordinance,
for all things thine severe.
- 92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought,
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.
- 93 Therefore will I thy preceptisaye
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.
- 94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy laws
mine ears and heart encline.
- 95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait:
But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.
- 96 I see nothing in this wide world
at length which hath not end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The thirteenth part.

97 What great desire and fervent love
do I bear to thy law!
All the day long my whole device
is only on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me far to passe
my foes in policy:
For still I hold it as a thing
of most excellency.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do passe also the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keep thy laws
I held it aye besteed.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way, Because that I continually
thy word might keep, I say.
102 I have not swerv'd from thy judgements,
nor yet shrank any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how sweet unto my taste
finde I thy words alway!
Doubtlesse no hony in my mouth
feel ought so sweet I may.
104 Thy law have me such wisdom learn'd,
that utterly I hate
All wicked and ungodly wayes,
in every kinde or rate.

N V N. The fourteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
so doth thy word shine bright:
And to my paths where ever I go
it is a flaming light.

106 I have both sworn and will perform
most certainly doubtlesse
That I will keep thy judgements just,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath me sore opprest,
and brought me to deaths door:
O Lord, as thou hast promised,
so me to life restore.

108 The offerings which with heart and voice
most frankly I thee give Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My soul is ay so in my hand,
that dangers me assail:
Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch me at a bay, Yet did I not from thy precepts
once swerve or go astray.

111 Thy law I have so claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:
And why? for therein I delight,
and set my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been beng
thy statutes to fulfill:
Even so likewise unto the end
I will continue still.

S A M E C H. The fifteenth part.

113 The crafty thoughts and double hearts
I do alwayse deceipt:

But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever best.

114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore have I thy promises
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:
For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promis'd so perform,
that death me not assail:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:
For nought availts their subtily,
their counsel is but weak.

119 Like drosse thou castst the wicked out
where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing halff so well.

120 My flesh (alas) is taken with fear,
as though it were benumm'd:
For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one aston'd.

A I N. The sixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right:
Resigne me not to them that would opprese me with their might.

122 But for thy servant suretie be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde,
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
whereby thou wile me save.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellencie
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite deaid:
Thy law likewise they have transgreſſed,
and none against them said.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better then gold,
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All craftie and malicious wayes
I do abhorre therefore.

P E. The seventeenth part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
and full of things profound:
My soule therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are tried and found.

- 130 When men first enter into thy word
they finde a light most clear:
And very idiots understand
when they it read or hear.
- 131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd
to know thy commandment:
That I might guid my self thereby
I sought what thing it meant.
- 132 With mercie and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above,
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name fear and love.
- 133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquity
thy servant overthrow. (harms)
- 134 From slanderous tongues and deadly preserve and keep me sure:
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.
- 135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the sun in his bright hue,
Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.
- 136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush out of dreary tears and fell,
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep never a deal.

Z A D E. The eighteenth part.

- 137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous Judge.
- 138 To render right, and flee from guil,
are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.
- 139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pined away.
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.
- 140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.
- 141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.
- 142 Thy righteousness, Lord, is most just,
forever to endure:
Also thy law is truth itself,
most constant and most pure.
- 143 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts delight to hear and know.
- 144 Thy righteousness of thy judgements
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P J H. The nineteenth part.

- 145 With servent heart I call'd and cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.
- 146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests:

Save me therefore and I will keep thy precepts and thy hests.

- 147 To thee I cry even in the morn
before the day wax light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.
- 148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:
That by devising on thy word
I might some comfort take,
- 149 Encline thine ears to hear my voyce,
and pitie on me take:
Asthough wast wont so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.
- 150 My foes draw neer, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and straid from it lewdly.
- 151 Therefore O Lord approach thou near,
for need doth so require:
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.
- 152 But thy commandments have I learn'd
not now but long ago,
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H. The twentieth part.

- 153 My trouble and affliction
consider and behold:
Deliver me, for of thy law
I evertake fast hold.
- 154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send:
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord keep me and defend.
- 155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace:
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.
- 156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant,
what tongue can them attain?
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.
- 157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me so:
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awrie therefore.
- 158 And truth it is, for grief I die
when I these traitours see:
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.
- 159 Behold, for I do love thy laws
with heart most glad and fain:
Asthough art good and gracious, Lord,
restore my life again.
- 160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath been ever:
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

S C H I N. The xxi. part.

- 161 Princes have sought by cruelty
causesse to make me crouch:
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch;
- 162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey
great store and plenty had.

- 163 As for allies and falsities;
I hate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice:
Thy righteous acts and wonders full
so cause me to rejoice.
165 Great peace and rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state
empair, or once remove.
166 My onely health and comfort, Lord;
I look for at thy hand:
And therefore have I done those things
which thou didst me command.
167 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
which my soul most desired:
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I required.
168 Thy statutes and commandements
I kept (thou knowst) aright:
For all the things that I have done
are present in thy sight.

T A V. The xxii. part.

- 169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 Mine humble supplication
toward thee let hind accessse:
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
for so is thy promise.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample soit:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing & preach thy word
and on this wise say shall,
Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.
173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save:
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
175 Grant me therefore long dayes to live
thy name to magnifie:
And of thy judgements mercifull
let me the favour tri.

Ad Dominum. Psal. cxx. T. S.

- 1 IN trouble and in thrall Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I say,
From lyars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.
3 What vantage, or what thing
Gett thou thus sor to sting,
Thou false and flattering liar?

4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No lesse then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas, too long I slack
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaacs seed
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life:
7 But when my tale wast told,
Causlesse I was controll
By them that would have strife.

Levi oculas. Psal. cxxij. W. W.

1 Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God mesend.
2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve,
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep.
4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover
As at thy right hand ever:
6 The sun shall not theeparch by day,
Nor the moon nor half so bright
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure save:
And thou shalt also have 8 In all thy busynesse good successse.
Where ever thou goest in or out,
God wil thy things bring about.

Laetatus sum. Psal. cxxij. W. K.

1 Did in heart rejoice
To hear the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly:
2 For let us up say they,
And in the Lords house pray:
Thus spake the folk full lovingly.

3 Our feet that wanded wide
Shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full fair,
Which art so seemly set,
Much like a citie neat,
The like wherof is not else where.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davidshouse pertain,
His folk to judge accordingly.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily:
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continually:

8 I wish thy prosperous state
For my poor brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee.

9 Godshouse doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure
So much alwayses as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. cxxijj. T. S.

O Lord that heaven doth possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant lifteth his,
his masters hands to see.
2 As handmaids watch their misris hand
some grace for to archieve:
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight;
For we are full'd and overcome
with hatred and despight.

4 Our minds be stift with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

Nisi quia Dom. Psal. cxxijj. W. W.

No w Israel
may say and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintaing:
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustaing,
When all the world
against us furiously
Made their uproars,
and said we should alldie:

3 Now long ago
they had devourd us all,
And swallowd quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.

4 And as the floods
with mightie force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging streams,
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
overwhelmd us in the deep:

6 But loved be God
which doth us safely keep,
From bloody teeth,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoice.

7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then;

His name hath saved
us from these wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. cxxv. W. K.

SUCH as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just:
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.

2 As mighty mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous tri doth he
By making wicked men his rod:
Lest they through grief forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be.

4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked wayes wh ch they out sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought:
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same, by R. W.

THOSE that do putt their confidence
Upon the Lord our God only,
And flee to him for their defence
In all their need and misery:
Their faith is ure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mightie hills do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case:
So God inde:d in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodlies rod
To tarry upon his family:
Lest they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickednesse.
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to Christians all
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts, and us succour:
That the right way from day to day
We may walk and him glorie:
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

When that the Lord again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great, and also servitude extream: His work was such as did surmount mans heart & thought: So that we were much like to them that use to dream. Our mouthes were with laughter filled then, And eke our tongues did shew us joyfull men.

Nisi Dom. Psal. cxxvj. W. W.

Except the Lord the house doth make, And thereunto doth set his hand: What men do build it cannot stand. Likewise in vain men undertake Cities and holds to watch and ward, Except the Lord be their safegard. 2 Though ye rise early in the morn And so at night go late to bed, Feeding full hardly with brown bread, Yet were your labour lost and worn: But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep. 3 Therefore mark well when ever ye see That men have heirs to enjoy their land, It is the gift of Gods own hand. For God himself doth multiply Of his great liberality The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age They grow in strength and activeness, In person and in comeliness: So that a shaft shot with courage Of one that hath a most strong arm, Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm. 5 O well is he that hath his quiver furnish'd with such artillerie: For when in perill he shall be Such one shall never shake nor shiver, When that he pleads before the judge Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. cxxvij. T. S.

Blessed art thou that searest God and walkest in his way: 2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat, happy art thou I say. 3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house side so doth thy wife spring out: Thy children stand like olive plants thy table round about. 4 Thus art thou blest that searest God, and he shall let thee see 5 The promised Jerusalem and her felicitie. 6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see, to thy great joyes increase: And likewise grace on Israel, prosperity and peace.

Oft they (now Israel may say) me from my youth assail'd: 2 Oft they assail'd me from my youth, yet never they prevail'd. 3 Upon my back the plowers plow'd, and furrows long did cast: 4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last. 5 They that hate me shall be sham'd, and turned back also: 6 And made as grass upon the house which withereth ere it grow: 7 Whereof the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand: Nor can he fill his lap, that goeth to glean upon the land. 8 Nor passers by pray God on them to let his blessing fall: Nor say, we bless you in the name of God the Lord at all.

Lord to thee I make my moan when dangers me oppresse: I call, I sigh, plain and groan, trusting to find release. 2 Hear now, O Lord, my request, for it is full due time: And let thine ears aye be prest unto this prayer mine. 3 O Lord our God, if thou weigh our sins and them peruse: Who shall then escape, and say, I can my self excuse? 4 But, Lord, thou art mercifull, and turn'st to us thy grace, That we with hearts most carefull should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust, my soul waitson his will: For his promise is most just, and I hope therein still. 6 My soul to God hath regard, wishing for him alway More then they that watch and ward to see the dawning day. 7 Let Israel then boldly in the Lord put his trust: He is that God of mercie that his deliver must.

R Emembre Davids troubles. Lord,
2 How to the Lord he swore,
And vowed a vow to Jacobs God,
to keep for evermore:
3 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed,
4 Nor let my temple take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head,

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound:
And in the fields and forrests there
these voices first were sound.
7 We will assay, and go in now
his tabernacle there,
Before his footstool to fall down,
and worship him in fear.
8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
into thy resting-place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyfulnesse.
10 And for thy servant Davids sake,
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it,

upon thy princely throne.

her viciuals every where:
And I will satisfie with bread
the needy that be there.

16 Yea, I will deck and clothe her priests
with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the horn
of David for to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.

with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh then heretofore.

Super flumina. Psal. cxxxvij. W.W.

When as we sat in Babylon
the rivers roundabout,
And in remembrance of Sion
the tears for griesburst out:
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us tauntingly:
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melody.

4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guid.

6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be tied forever fast,
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now
the cursed noise and cry
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they raz'd our city.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On, sack, and raze their wals,
in despight of their Lord.

8 Even so shal thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.

9 Ye blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young
To dash their bones against hard stones that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxxxvij. N.
THee will I praise with my whole heart,
my Lord my God alwayes:
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth
thy holy name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindnesse sake,
and for thy truth withall:
Forthou thy name hast by thy word
advanced over all.

3 When I did call thou hearest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength within my soul to grow.

4 Yea all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.

5 They of the wayes of God the Lord
in singing shall entreat:
Because the glory of the Lord
is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowly sprite :
But he (contemning) knows afar
 the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Renewed by thee : O my Lord ,
 thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
 and saved shall I be
By thy righthand : the Lord God will perform his work to me.
8 Thy mercie Lord endures for ay ,
 Lord do me not forsake :
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.
 Domine probasti. Psal. cxxxix. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and known ,
 my sitting thou dost know 2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar, thou understand'st also.
3 My pathes, yea, and my lying down
 thou compassest always :
And by familiar custom art
 acquainted with my wayes.
4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord ,
 but known it is to thee :
5 Thou me behinde holdst and before ,
 thou layst thine hand on me.
6 Too wonderfull above my reach ,
 Lord, is thy cunning skill :
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain until .

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit
 Lord whither shall I go ?
Or whither shall I flee away
 thy presence to scape fro ?
8 To heaven if I mount aloft ,
 lo thou art present there :
In hell if I lie down below ,
 even therethou dost appear.
9 Yea let me take the morning wings ,
 and let me go and bide
Even there where are the farthest parts ,
 where flowing sea doth slide :
10 Yea even thither also shall
 thy reaching hand me guid :
And thy right hand shall hold me fast
 and make me to abide.
11 Yea, if I say, the darknesse shall yet shroud me from thy sight ;
Lo, even also the darknesst night
 about me shall be light.
12 Yea darknesse hideth not from thee ,
 but night doth shine as day :
To thee the darknesse and the light
 are both alike alway .
 The second part.
13 For thou possessed hast my reins ,
 and thou hast covered me ,
When I within my mothers womb
 enclosed was by thee .
14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
 and wonderously I am :
Thy works are marvellous, right well
 my soul doth know the same.
15 My bones they are not hid from thee ,
 although in secret place

I have been made, and in the earth
 beneath I shaped was.
16 When I was formlesse , then thine eye
 saw me : for in thy book
Were written all , nought was before that after fashion took.
17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God ,
 how dear are they to me !
And of them all how passing great
 the endlesse number be !
18 If I should count them, lo their sum
 more then the sand I see :
And whensoever I awake
 yet am I still with thee.
19 The wicked and the bloody men
 O that thou wouldest slay :
Even those O God, to whom depart ,
 depart from me, I say.
20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God ,
 that speak full wickedly :
Those that are lifted up in vain ,
 being enemies to thee.
21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord ,
 and that in earnest wise ?
Contend I not against them all against thee that arise ?
22 I hate them with unfeigned hate ,
 even as my utter foes.
23 Try me , O God, and know my heart ,
 my thoughts prove and disclose .
24 Consider Lord if wickednesse
 in me there any be :
And in thy way, O God my guid ,
 for ever leadthou me.
 Eripe me. Psal. cxl. N.

L ord save me from the evil man ,
 and from the cruel weight :
And from all those which evil do
 imagine in their sprite.
2 Which make on me continual war ,
 their tongues lo they have whet
3 Like serpents , underneath their lips is adders poison set .
4 Keep me, O Lord , from wickedhands , preserve me to abide Free from the cruel man, that means to cause my steps to slide .
5 The proud have laid a snare for me ,
 and they have spread a net
With cords in my path-way , and gring
 for me eke have they set .
6 Therefore I said unto the Lord ,
 thou art my God alone :
Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voyce
 wherewith I pray and mone .
7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
 the strength that safeth me :
My head in day of baile hath been covered still by thee .
8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire :
Perform not his ill thoughts , lest he
 with pride be set on fire .
9 Of them that compass me about ,
 the chiefeſt of them all ,
Lord let the mischief of their lips
 upon themſelves befall .

- 10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast them in consuming flame,
And in deep pits; so as they may not rise out of the same.
11 For no backbiter shall on earth be set in stable plight:
And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel wight.
12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor:
13 The just shall praise thy name: just shall dwell with thee evermore.
- Domine clamavi. Psal. cxlij. N.*
- O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord hast thee unto me:
And hearken Lord unto my voice when I do cry to thee.
2 As incense, let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the uplifting of mine hands as evening sacrifice.
3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth set thou a watch before:
And also of my moving lips O Lord keep thou the door.
4 That I should wicked works commit encline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicates Lord let me eat no part.
5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord, for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oil shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my head, the time shall shortly fall
When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.
6 Then when in stony places down their judges shall be cast:
Then shall they hear my words, for then they have a pleasant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth so scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.
8 But, O my Lord, my God, mine eyes do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.
9 Which they have laid to catch me in Lord keep me from the snare,
And from the subtil grins of them that wicked workers are.
10 The wicked into their own nets together let them fall While I do by thy help escape the danger of them all.

Voce mea. Psal. cxliij. N.

B Efore the Lord God with my voyce I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voyce unto the Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his sight to pour I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord my trouble did declare.

- 3 Although perplexed was my spirit, my path was known to thee: In way where I did walk a snare they slyly laid for me.
4 I lookt and view'd on my right hand, but none there would me know: All refuge failed me, and for my soul none cared tho.
5 Then cry'd I, Lord, to thee, and said, my hope thou onely art: Thou in the land of living art my portion and my part.
6 Hark to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliver me From them that do me persecute, for me too strong they be.
7 That I may praise thy name, my soul from prison, Lord, bring out: When thou art good to me, the just shall presse me round about.
- Domine exaudi. Psal. cxliij. N.*
- L Ord hear my prayer, heark the plaint that I do make to thee: Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord, O enter not at all: For justified be in thy sight not one that liveth shall.
3 The enemy hath pursued my soul, my life to ground hath thrown: And laid me in the dark, like them that dead are long agone.
4 Within me in perplexitie was mine accombred sprite: And in me was my troubled heart amazed and afright.
5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate: Yea, in thy works I meditate that thy hands have create.
6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I do stretch my craving hands, My soul desireth after thee, as do the thirstielands.
7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail, hide not thy face me fro: Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy loving kindnessse in the morning hear and know: For in thee is my trust, shew me the way where I shall go.
9 For I lift up my soul to thee, O Lord, deliver me From all mine enemies: for I have hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou, thou art my God, I say, Let thy good Spirit unto the land of mercy me convay.
11 For thy names sake with quickning grace alive do thou me make: And out of trouble bring my soul even for thy justice sake.
12 And for thy mercie slay my foes, O Lord, destroy them all.

That do oppresse my soul, for I thy servant am and shall.
Benedictus Dom. Psal. cxliiiij. N.

Blest be the Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame to battell by his might.

2 He is my goodnessse, fort, and tower, deliverer and shield:
In him I trust; my people he subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou holdest so in price?
Or son of man, that upon him thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanity, so passe his dayes to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bowe down, O Lord, the heavens and descend.

6 The mountains touch, and they shall smoke, cast forth thy lightning flame
And scatter them: thine arrows shoot, consumem them with the same.

7 Send down thine hand even from above, O Lord deliver me:
Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free.

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanity and sondnesse doth entreat:
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God, and singing will I be
On viol and on instrument ten-stringed, unto thee.

10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings:
Unto his servant David help from hurtfull sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save and shield, whose mouth talks vanity:
And their right hand is a right hand of guyl and subtily.

12 That our sons may be as the plants whom growing youth doth rear:
Our daughters as carred corner stones, like to a pallece fair:

13 Our garners full, and plenty may with sundry sorts be found:
Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets tenthousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong, that none do us invade:
There be no goings out, nor cries within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:
Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltebo te. Psal. cxlv. N.

Thee will I laud my God and King, and blesse thy name for ay:

2 Forever will I praisethy name, and blesse thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnessse none can reach:

4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach.

5 I of thy glorious Majestie the beauty will record:
And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull, O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare:
And I to publish all abroad thy greatnessse will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnessse great:
And I aloud thy righteousnesse in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed:

10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord, and to thy honour spread.

11 Thy sains do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdom's glorie show:

12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom eke to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdom, Lord, a kingdom is that doth endure alwayes:
And thy dominion through each age endures without decay.

14 The Lord upholdeith them that fall, their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee: thou dost them all relieve:
And thou to each sufficing food in season thou dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand, and bounteously dost fill All things whatsoever do live with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his wayes, his works are holy all.

18 Near all he is that call on him, in truth that on him call.

19 He the desires which they require that fear him will fulfill:
And he will hear them when they cry, and save them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those, to him that bear a loving heart:
But he them all that wicked are will utterly subvert.

21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak the praises of the Lord:
All flesh to praise his holy name for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima. Psal. cxlvj. J. H.

My soul praise thou the Lord alwayes, my God I will confessie:

2 While breath and life prolong my dayes, my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldly princes then, though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sons of mortallmen, in whom there is no health.

- 4 For why? their breath doth soone depart,
to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perishall.
5 O happy is that man, I say,
who Jacobs God doth aid,
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
6 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keep intruth, and ever shall.
7 With right always doth he proceed
for such as suffer wrong:
The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the scutsons strong.
8 The Lord doth send the blind their sight,
the lame to limbs restore:
The Lord, I say, doth love the right
and just man evermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
and strangers sad in heart,
And quit the widow from d stresse,
and ill mens wayes subvert.
10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion still shall reign,
In time of all posterity
for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxlvij. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comelything.
2 The Lord his own Jerusalem
he buildeth up alone:
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.
3 He heals the broken in their heart,
their sores up doth he bind:
4 He countst the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind.
5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite.
6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoice:
And to our God upon the harp
advance your singing voyce.
8 He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the grasse to grow again.
9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they crie.
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse
nor in mans legs doth lie:
11 But in all those that fear the Lord
the Lord hath his delight,
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

- 12 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
thy God, O Sion, praise:
13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stayes.

- 14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the floure
of wheat he filleth thee.
15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out:
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
16 He giveth snow like wooll, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:
17 Like morsels cast his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them again:
His winde he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow amain.
19 The doctrin of his holy word
to Jacob he doth shew:
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.
20 With every nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dom. Psal. cxlviii. J. H.

G Ivelaud unto the Lord,
From heaven that is so hie:
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starries skie.

2 And also ye,
His angels all,
Armies royll,
praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both moon and sun,
Which are so clear and bright:
The same of you be done,
Yeglistring stars of light:
4 And eke no less,
Ye heavens fair
5 And clouds of the air,
His laud expresse.

6 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voycedid appear
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast:
To them he made
A law and trade
For ay to last.

7 Extoll and praise Gods name
On earth ye dragons fell:
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And stormsthat blow
At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitfull are
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and cattle,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kings both more and lesse
With all their pomposstrain,
Princes and all judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his name.
12 Young men and maides,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.

13 For his name shall we praye
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horn of his,
And help them all.

His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthinesse,
The children of Israel
Each one both more and lesse:
And also they
That with good will
His wordes full,
And him obey.

Cantate Domino. Psal. cxlix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
a new rejoicing song:
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.
3 Let Israel rejoice in him
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyfull in their King.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of flute unto his holy name:
And with the timbrell and the harp
sing praises of the same.
4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:

And by deliverance he will raise the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoice:
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouths let be the acts
of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double-edged sword:

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To bind their stately kings in chains,
their lords in iron bands:
9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before.
This honour all his saints shall have:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cl. N.

YEeld unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his sanctuary:
And praise him in the firmament,
that shew his power on high.
2 Advance his name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
According to his excellencie
of greatness give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
offounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the violand
upon the harp also.
4 Praise him with timbrell and with flute,
organs and virginals:
5 With sounding cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing, praise the Lord:
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the psalms.

A song

A song to be sung before morning
prayer. T. B.

Praise ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right.

For he is full determined
on us to pour out his mercie:
And the Lord struth be ye assured
abideth perpetually.

Glorie be to God the Father,
and to Jesus Christ his true Son,
With the holy Ghost in like manner
now and at every season.

A song to be sung before evening
prayer.

Behold now give heed, such as be the Lords servants faithfull and true:
Come praise the Lorde every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that standin the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion,
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.

List up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night:
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion, which made heaven and earth by his Give to you and your nation power,
his blessing mercy and favour.
Glorie be to God the Father, &c.

The ten commandments of God.

Exodus xx. W.W.

Attend my people and give ear,
Offerly things I will thee tell:
See that my words in mind thou bear,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy sovereign Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from carefull thrall
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod:
Make thee no gods on them to call:

2 Nor fashioned form of anything
In heaven or earth to worship it:
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

3 Take not in vain his holy name,
Abuse it not after thy will:
For so thou mightst soon purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods hests ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend:
That thou long dayes and good mayst live
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murther and cruell hate.
7 All filthy fornication fear.
8 Seethou steal not in any rate.
9 False witnesse against no man bear.

10 Thy neighbourhouse wish not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine;
His field, his ox, his asse, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us, O Lord,
To keep these laws our hearts restore:
And cause us all with one accord
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of ourselves no strength we have
To keep these laws after thy will:
Thy might therefore, O Christ, we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord, for thy names sake grant us this;
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ:
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist?

To thee forevermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spiritalwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords prayer. D. Coxe.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'st us all one brotherhood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God:
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide
To magnifie thy holy name.
From all errorrs defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour,
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into us pour,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Sathan's rage and filthy band
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.

The Creed.

Let not flesh, blood, or any ill,
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war, and from blood shed,
Also from sickness, dearth, and pine:
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull conscience;
As we forgive both great and small
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us, Lord, so to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord, into temptation
Lead us not; when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host
With faith, and with the holy Ghost.

O Lord, from evill deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous:
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive,

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universall.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praid with one accord.

The twelve articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
is in the Lord of might;
The Father which all things hath made,
the day and eke the night:
The heavens and the firmament,
and also many a star:
The earth and all that is therein,
which passe mans reason far.

And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Son, Coequal with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone:
Conceived by the holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall:
He came and offered up himself
to death, to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judge,
Was crucified on the cross,
and thereat did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the sprites:
His body then wast buried,
as is our use and rite.

A prayer to the holy Ghost.

His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts:
A dread unto the wicked sprites,
but joy to fafhull hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again,
To th'end he might be glorified,
out of all grief and pain.
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glorie still
On Gods right hand his Father deer,
according to his will;

Untill the day of judgement come,
when he shall come again,
With angel's power (yet of that day
we all be uncertain)
To judge all people righteouslie,
whom he hath dearly bought:
The living and the dead also
which he hath made of noughe.

And in the holy Spirit of God
my faith to satisfie,
The third person in trinity believe I flesfastly:
The holy and catholick church
that Gods word doth maintain,
And holy scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith:
What time all flesh shall rise again
before the Lord of might;
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide,
And give life everlasting
to those whom he hath tried:
Within his realm celestiall
in glory for to rest,
With all his holy company
of saints and angels blest;

Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each hour:
To whom be alldominion
and praise for evermore.

*A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung
before the sermon.*

Come holy Spirit the God of might,
comforter of us all:
Teach us to know thy word aright,
that we do never fall.
O holy Ghost, visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield:
Against all sin and wickednesse
Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our king and his counsel,
and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.

O Lord

Da pacem.

O Lord that givest thy holy word,
Send preachers plenteously:
That in the same we may accord,
And there in live and die.

O holy Spirit, direct aright
The preachers of thy word,
That thou by them maist cut down sin
As it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy pastors pure,
But aid them at their need:
Which break to us the bread of life,
Whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
In peace and unity,
Keep us from sects and errors all,
And from all papistry.
Convert all those that are our foes,
And bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
And praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,
And love so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
And neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace, O Lord,
To nations far and nigh:
And teach them all thy holy word,
That we may sing to thee.

All glorie to the trinity
That is of mighties most:
The living Father, and the Son,
And eke the holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time
That hath been heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be Henceforth for evermore.

Da pacem, Domine.

Give peace in these our dayes, O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord
Christ's name in every land
Seek to deface,
Root out and race
Thy true right worship indeed.
Be thou the stay,
Lord, we thee pray,
Thou helpst alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we do lack
Through misbeliefs and ill life:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slack,
Which we unkindly gainsay.
With fire and sword
This healthfull word
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth
Without sincere godlinesse.

Give peace and us thy Spirit down send,
With grief and repentance true
Do pierce our hearts, our lives to amend,
And by faith in Christ renew.
That fear and dread,
War and blood-shed,

The Lamentation.

Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide:
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord, in thee is all my trust,
Give ear unto my wofull cry:
Rescue me not that am unjust,
But bowing down thy heavenly eye.
Behold how I do still lament
My sins wherein I do offend:
O Lord for them shall I be shent,
Sith thee to please I do intend?

No, no; not so thy will is bent
To deal with sinners in thine ire:
But when in heart they shall repent,
Thou grant'st with speed their just desire.
To thee therefore still shall I cry
To wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood, O Lord, is not yet drie
But that it may help me in time.

Haste thee, O Lord, haste thee, I say,
To pour on me thy gifts of grace,
That when this life shall flit away,
In heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou doest reign eternally
With God which once did down thee Where angels sing continually: (Send
To thee be praise world without end.

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lord's supper.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts
And mercies evermore
That he doth shew unto his saints:
To him be laud therefore.
Our tongues cannot so praise the Lord
As he doth right deserve:
Our hearts cannot of him so think
As he doth us preserve.

His benefits they be so great
To us that be but sin,
That at our hands for recompence
There is no hope to win.
O sinfull flesh, that thou shouldst have Such mercies of the Lord!
Thou dost deserve more worthily
Of him to be abhord.

Nought else but sin and wretchednesse
Doth rest within our hearts:
And stubbornly against the Lord
We daily play our parts.
The sun above in firmament
That is to us a light,
Doth shew it self more clear and pure
Then we be in his sight.

The heavens above and all therein
More holy are then we:
They serve the Lord in their estate,
Each one in his degree.
They do not strive for mastership,
Nor slack their office set:
But serve the Lord and do his will,
Hate is to them no let.

Also

A thanksgiving.

Also the earth and all therein
of God it is in awe,
It doth observe the Formers will,
by skilfull natures law.
The sea and all that is therein
doth bend when God doth beck:
The spirits beneath do tremble all,
and fear his wrathfull check.

But we (alas !) for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord
as doth the ox or mule.
A law he gave for us to know,
what was his holy will:
He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that seeketh out
the Lord of life to please:
Nor doth the thing that might us lead
to Christ and quiet ease.
Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not denie:
And he again of his good will
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none
to bring us unto life,
The Son of God our flesh he took
to end our mortall strife.
And all the law of God the Lord
he did it full obey:
And for our sins upon the crosse
his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget
what good he to us wrought,
A signe he leſt our eyest to tell
that he our bodies bought:
In bread and wine here visible
unto thine eyes and taste,
His mercies great thou mayest record
if that his Spirit thou hast.

As once the corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with sithe,
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive:
And as the mill with violence
did rear it out so small,
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all:

And as the oven with fire hot
did close it up with heat,
And all this done that I have said,
that it should be our meat:
So was the Lord in his ripe age
cut down by cruel death:
His soul he gave in torments great,
and yeeldeth up his breath.

A prayer.

Because that he to us might be an everlasting bread,
With much reproach and troubles great
on earth his life he led,
And as the grapes in pleasant time
are pressed very sore,
And plucked down when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more:

Because the juyce that in them is as comfortable drink
We might receive, and joyfull be
when sorrows make us shrink:
So Christ his bloud outpressed was
with nails and eke with spear:
The juyce thereof doth save all those
that rightly do him fear.

And as the corns by unitie
into one loaf are knit;
So is the Lord and his whole church,
though he in heaven sit.
As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one In faith and love in Christ above,
and unto Christ alone:

Leading a life without all strife
in quiet rest and peace:
From envie and from malice both
our hearts and tongues to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew
that we his chosen be:
By faith in him to lead a life
as alwayes willed he.

And that we may so do indeed,
God send us all his grace:
Then after death we shall be sure
with him to have a place.

A prayer. R. W.

Preserve us Lord, by thy dear words;
From Turk and Pope defend us Lord:
Which both would thrust out of his throne
Our Lord Jesus Christ thy dear Son.

Lord Jesus Christ, shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of lords by right:
Thy poor afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in person three,
Thy name be praise in unitie:
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.
